Separate Board Is Voted For Palo Duro

BILL PASSED LEGISLATURE FOR BOARD

Governor Holds Bill to Ascertain Will of People

PROVIDES 5 BOARDS

Meeting Today to Decide Upon Necessity of Bill

Creation of a separate board for the Palo Duro State Park was made by a bill in the legislature Thursday. The board will be composed of five members, who will serve without pay.

The territory included in the bill is Randall, Potter, Armstrong and Donley counties, and would include the Palo Duro State Park, the Palisades, and any other state parks which may be established in these four counties.

The bill was sponsored by Senator Clint Small, who believes that Austin is too far from the Palo Duro to allow the proper management of the Park.

Governor Allred has agreed to hold the bill for twenty days, or until the citizens of this section make a thorough investigation to determine whether or not they are in favor of a separate board for the park.

A group of citizens attended a breakfast in Amarillo this morning given in honor of representatives of the National Park Service for the purpose of investigating the bill, and to see whether or not they would ask the Governor to approve the measure.

The possibilities of a separate governing park board for the Palo Duro has been discussed for a number of weeks. Senator Small, after thorough investigation, believes that it is the best manner in which the Park may be developed.

D. E. Colp, chairman of the State Parks Board, believes that it would not be a wise thing to do.

Senator Tom Connally was asked for advice Saturday, and telegraphed that the National Park Service would recognize and cooperate with any board which was set up by law in Texas.

All details of the new board will be discussed by those interested before the Governor is asked to sign the bill.

Park Display Being Shown This Week At Plainview

J. B. Elliston left Sunday with an exhibit from the Palo Duro State Park which is being shown at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce meeting at Plainview.

Mr. Elliston took an exhibit to the Dallas Fair last fall which caused much favorable comment, and which was responsible for the large number of Dallas people who have been visiting the Palo Duro this year. This exhibit was taken on to Austin where it is being shown.

Reports from Plainview indicate the exhibit is creating much interest.

MRS. J. W. McDANIELS IN ACCIDENT SATURDAY

Mrs. J. W. McDaniels received severe bruises and Mrs. Stella Riddle of Amarillo is in a Clovis hospital suffering from a broken neck as the result of a car accident near Farwell early Saturday morning.

Mr. McDaniels returned from Clovis yesterday with word that Mrs. Riddle would be placed in a cast as soon as the doctors thought it advisable.

Mrs. McDaniels and Mrs. Riddle were on their way to Phoenix, Arizona, for a short visit with relatives and friends, and then on to Los Angeles for the summer.

Appropriations For W. T. Was Increased

Bill Passed Legislature Saturday Before Closing

During the closing hours of the legislature, the appropriation bill for educational institutions was passed Saturday by the legislature.

A slight increase was made in all appropriations, but the heavy cut made two years ago was not restored for any of the state institutions and departments.

The money allowed for W. T. was $150,487 for each of the coming two years. In addition to this the summer school for next year will receive $14,798, the same amount allowed for the session this summer. No appropriation was passed for the summer session, 1936, in view of the fact that the regular session of the legislature will be held before the opening of the summer session that year.

The appropriation allowed during the past two years amounted to $135,717, making an increase of $14,770 allowed in the bill which has just been passed.

Governor Allred has 20 days in which to act upon the appropriation bills. He has not had time to study the bills to determine whether or not he will veto any of the items allowed by the legislature.

Rehabilitation Is Started Among the Farmers of County

Rehabilitation work has started in Randall county among farmers who live on their own farms, and among farmers who live on rented farms. It is thought the plan will be extended soon to move back to farms all who are living in town, but who are classed as farmers.

Sixty-three were ordered removed from the relief rolls this week. Only about 25 families have been transferred and started upon the new program.

Roy Starker has been appointed rural supervisor for Randall and Potter counties and will supervise the work.

Under this plan, subsistence is given to the families living on farms, and such necessary aid is given that will enable them to plant a crop. A survey was recently made at the relief office showing there were many families who could make their own way if given a little help in getting a crop started.

H. S. Strain, county administrator, states that the relief load has been reduced in Randall county, but that he was out of money and all work was stopped Monday night. He hopes to receive another check from Austin this week.

Rain Tuesday Nite Brings Quarter of Inch of Moisture

A slow rain fell Tuesday night, bringing a quarter inch of moisture. The rain was quite general over the Plains according to reports yesterday.

A light rain Monday of .10 had settled the dust.

Weather forecast favors more rain the latter part of this week, although the rain Tuesday came after the weather bureau stated there was no chance for moisture during the week.

EQUALIZATION BOARD OF COUNTY STARTS MONDAY

The Commissioners Court will start checking the tax renditions for 1935 next Monday sitting as a board of equalization.

W. H. Hardin has completed the assessments of the county, and the commissioners will check the assessment sheets before the tax rolls are made.

Mrs. M. O. Slack accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jennings to Memphis Sunday.

Joe Hill, Jr., Is Returning Home

JOE HILL, JR.

Joe Boy Hill will be home about Thursday of next week. He will be released from the Byrd expedition in Boston tomorrow, and the family will leave at once for home. Joe left two years ago with Admiral Byrd on his second trip to Little America.

Announcement will be made soon as to his public appearances in this section. It is expected that he will make his first talk in Canyon soon after arriving home. Other towns are requesting a date as quickly as possible.

Capt. Cooper Is Placed in Charge of District Work

Captain L. D. Cooper will leave with his family Monday for Ft. Sill where he will be placed in charge of District C, composed of eight CCC camps in Texas and Oklahoma. Clovis is being transferred to this district, making nine camps in all.

Captain Cooper has been in command at the Palo Duro Park since Nov. 24th. It is likely that no commanding officer will be placed over the two companies, since he will be here at least twice a month to check up on affairs at the camps.

"The Palo Duro has the best record in the district," stated Captain Cooper.

Materials Bought for Completion of the Buffalo Courts

The State Board of Control has let contracts for materials for the completion of Buffalo Courts, the Recreation Hall and fence around Buffalo field.

The legislature appropriated $7,500 for these materials. Local firms will furnish most of the materials. Burrow Lumber Co., Sternberg Lumber Co., and Thompson Hardware Co. were given contracts for practically all the materials by the Board of Control.

"All we lack now is funds to pay for the foreman of the construction," stated Coach Al Baggett. These funds are being raised in various ways. The Canyon Athletic Club is sponsoring the building of the Buffalo Courts.

Water Plentiful At Cemetery; Ask Grass Be Planted

With the completion of four water mains in the east part of Dreamland Cemetery, water is within reach of all lots, and ready for irrigation purposes. Pipe is on the ground for the west section of the cemetery, and will be laid as rapidly as possible.

Lot owners are urged by the Cemetery Association to plant blue grass as quickly as possible. Canadian blue grass is recommended, and it is not necessary to spade up the native grass. The ground should be well raked, the grass seed sown, and then well watered. The blue grass will take the native grass in a short period of time.

Many visitors have been to the cemetery the past week to see the work that has been in progress.

Ray Robbins of Olton attended to business in Borger Saturday. Mrs. Earl Robbins returned to Olton with him Sunday morning to attend the Baccalaureate services of the high school there.

FARMERS TO GATHER HERE SIGN, BALLOT

1935 Compliance Papers Are Ready for the Growers

VOTE SAME TIME

Final Ballot Day Will Be Saturday the 25th of May

Wheat farmers of Randall county will sign their 1935 compliance papers and vote for a continuation of AAA during the coming week.

Meetings have been held during this week at which both of these questions have been thoroughly discussed, and plans made for next week when both of these important questions will be up for consideration. There was a meeting at Sunny Hill on Monday night; at Zita on Tuesday night; Trigg last night; and Jowell tonight. The interest has been exceptionally good, and all phases of the wheat program have been thoroughly discussed.

In regards to voting next week, this may be done at any time at the office of County Agent W. H. Upchurch. However, voting boxes will be held open in all of the nine districts on May 25th for those who do not have an opportunity to come to Canyon during the week. Ballots have been mailed to all non-residents who are entitled to vote.

In regard to the schedule for next week, the following letter has been mailed to all wheat farmers of the county by R. B. Gist, chairman of the Wheat Allotment Committee.

The 1935 compliance papers on your Wheat Allotment Contract are ready to sign at the office of the County Agent in Canyon.

The different districts will sign according to the following schedule:

Highland, No. 9; Trigg, No. 8; Umbarger, No. 4, on Monday, May 20th.

Stone, No. 6; Park, No. 7; Jowell No. 3, on Tuesday, May 21st.

Sunny Hill, No. 1; Ralph, No. 2, on Wednesday, May 22nd.

Canyon, No. 5, on Thursday, May 23rd.

Come on the day scheduled for your district if possible.

We will vote on the new wheat program at the same time.

Library Changes Made to Care For Increased Number

To care for the increased number of books and patrons, changes were made in the Randall County Library this week. The various women's clubs voted to give the entire room over to the library and to find other meeting places.

The shelves have been re-arranged to make the books more available, as well as to be more convenient for those who go to the library to read newspapers and magazines.

New shelves in the vault improved the handling of the hundreds of magazines on hand.

The southeast corner of the room will be arranged for the children's books and a space set aside for them to read.

More than fifty new books were added to the library this week. Among the new books are several on Texas. With the coming of the Centennial, a selection of Texas books are being added for the purpose of making available more information for those wishing to gain more knowledge about Texas.

FARWELL EDITOR SENDS UNUSUAL ROSES TO CITY

W. H. Graham, editor of the Tribune, Farwell, is a recognized authority of flowers and raises some of the finest to be found in Northwest Texas.

Yesterday he sent a box of roses to Mrs. Clyde Warwick to show the kind which he produced. He was highly impressed with the tulips which Mrs. Warwick had shown at the Panhandle Press Association meeting in Amarillo.

California Prof. Visits Fossils Bed in Palo Duro

Dr. R. A. Sturton, professor of Vertebrate paleontology in the University of California, visited the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum this week.

Dr. Sturton, who is in Texas to supervise some excavations, was much interested in the work which is being done by Professor Stuart Johnston of W. T. Dr. Sturton stated that the fossil beds of the Palo Duro Canyon are especially valuable because they represent an upper pliocene formation and are bringing to light fossils which show the development of a horse. Dr. Sturton says that the beds in the Palo Duro show life as it was approximately five million years ago. He was surprised and much pleased at the program of work in the field of paleontology which the college and museum have planned. He declared that soon Canyon would have a college which would bring scientists from every part of the nation to see it.

While in the Panhandle, Dr. Sturton was guest of Floyd V. Studer in Amarillo and of Stuart Johnston in Canyon.

Two Amarillo Men Made Bond $5000 For Beating Man

G. A. Craig and B. E. Sargent made bond for $5,000 each Saturday and will await the action of the grand jury in July on the charge of beating Geo. Engman of Amarillo. Engman died following the fray with the two in the north part of Randall county. Sheriff Bob Barnett brought the pair to Canyon where the bond was completed.

GIST AND HIX ARE IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Roger Gist and J. P. Hix are in Washington on the special train for farmers which went from Texas to express to the President the approval of the farmers for AAA, and to ask that it be continued.

President Roosevelt spoke to the group Tuesday.

The legislature closed Saturday without carrying out much of the Governor's program. However, this is the way of legislative bodies. Follow the leader is not a popular game when it comes to writing laws which presidents and governors demand. Governor Allred is opposed to special sessions, but indicates that he will call a special session this fall, hoping to pass some of the measures he advocated in his campaign. The News has no information as to the Governor's political plans or ambitions. It is said he would like to be United States senator. If this is true, he should run next year against Senator Sheppard. While every Governor believes that he owes it to his friends to stay in office two terms, the record shows that most governors do not fare as well with the legislature during their second as in their first term. The News has expressed no choice in the race for the senate next year. We have never been strong for Senator Sheppard, whose influence has always been largely nil. We have been forced to support him at times, because of his opponents, and from the present list of probable opponents, would be forced to again vote for Sheppard. With the Allred enthusiasm, driving powers, and record in public office, the Governor has a splendid opportunity to go to the senate if that is the ticket he chooses. He would have a much better chance against Sheppard than he would against Senator Connally four years hence.

Farmers are in Washington telling the President how much they appreciate the relief measures passed for their benefit. AAA is under fire of eastern people who are largely the consumers of farm products. That section is opposed to the processing taxes which go to pay the farmer a living price for his products. AAA is classed as a direct relief measure for the benefit of the farmers, by those opposed to any sort of farm program. Perhaps it is, but one thing is sure and certain, the government can better afford to give this kind of relief and keep the farmers on the farms than it can to have the farmers remove into the towns and villages, as a result of wrecked farm prices, there to become direct wards of the relief rolls. The processing tax is paying for the AAA program. It is costing the people much less than other forms of relief, and it is keeping families on the farms to continue raising the food supply of the nation. The farmers have a right to go to Washington and assure the President of their appreciation, and to explain where they would be without the AAA program.

The News presents today a most unusual feature, an entire section of the paper devoted to news from the public schools. This section was sponsored by the staff of The Eagle's Tale. All of the stories written in this section came from members of the staff. All of the advertising in this section was solicited by members of the staff. So far as The News can ascertain, this is the first time a high school staff has ever undertaken such a big job, and put it over successfully. The Eagle's Tale is the oldest school page in Texas; it has been a successful school page.

A Bull's-Eye!

Alma Broglioli has it over the lad who shot an arrow into the air, it fell to earth he knew not where. With her bow and arrow, this San Rafael, Calif., lass snagged a 10-pound striped bass. Or maybe it's a fish story.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

winning first place in two state-wide contests this year. The News extends congratulations to the staff of The Eagle's Tale for the successful year's work, which is climaxed today in this splendid edition. Read the second section of today's issue. After you have completed this reading, you will be more than pleased with the work of the Canyon public schools, proud of the faculty and students of the school, of the school plant, and especially the group of students who have made possible this section of the weekly newspaper.

The people of Texas will be called upon to vote for repeal of the prohibition amendment on August 25th. You will hear and read a lot about this election during the coming three months. The personal liberty crowd, who claim they want liquor because of the revenues, are the ones who are drinking the bootleggers' products, and will continue to patronize the bootlegger should repeal be adopted. They claim conditions are terrible, liquor being sold on every hand, but would cure the situation by opening liquor joints on every block. They are getting all the liquor they wish now, so why make it flow more freely. Perhaps if the thousands who have been killed in auto accidents as a result of liquor could speak, they would testify that drinking does not lead to a prolonged and healthy life.

Every wheat farmer in Randall county, and every owner of land who has a tenant raising wheat should vote in the allotment referendum May 25th. To be sure, the wheat allotment has been nothing more than drouth insurance to wheat farmers of the Plains during the past two years, but what would they have done without it? To express to the President and to the Secretary of Agriculture thanks for this drouth insurance will take only a little time, and might prove a continuation of the allotment plan. It is sure and certain that if a large vote is not cast in favor of the continuation, sufficient pressure is being brought on the administration by eastern consumers to wreck the entire AAA program. By all means, every farmer who has received a wheat check should vote to continue AAA.

It does not take a smart man to make a darn fool of himself.

A good friend of your publisher, a good friend of Canyon and W. T., died Thursday at Dalhart, Hon. Arthur C. Johnson. We served nearly three years with Arthur Johnson in the legislature. He was vitally interested in the educational development of Northwest Texas and made a valiant fight for the schools of this section. No one ever heard him utter an unkind word regarding another person. Arthur Johnson was truly a gentleman in every respect, a man who left the world better for the good deeds he performed while walking with his fellow men.

The post office department is making a gesture to stop the dime chain letter fad. Its efforts will probably be successful after the craze has died down and folks find that it will not bring them sudden riches. In the meanwhile the post-office department is doing a flourishing business. It should really encourage this little racket, as all who take the time to send out the letters are having a lot of fun at little expense.

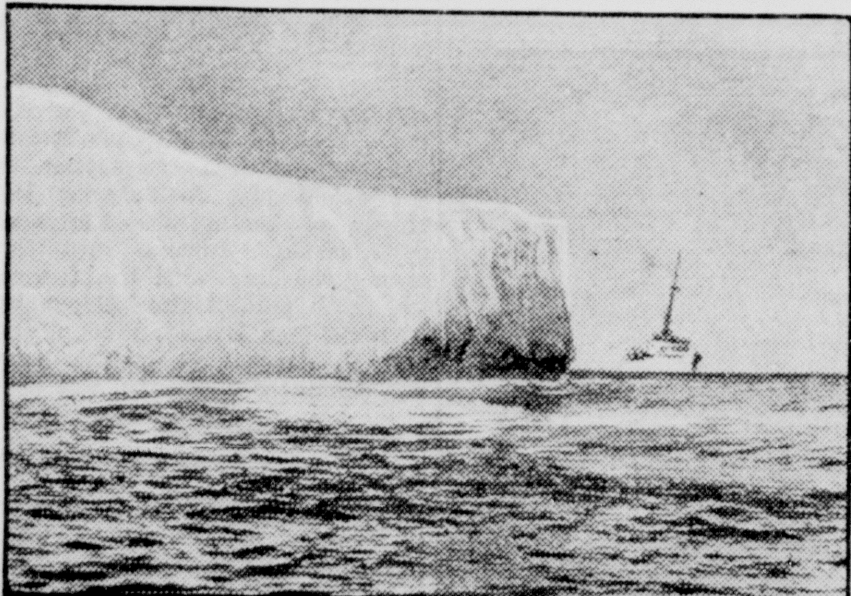

We hope the Japanese and U. S. naval war games out in the Pacific do not attempt to make the problem real, as some of the western papers have been talking so much about. What under heaven these two nations have to fight about we cannot comprehend. Japan stayed out of the world war; Uncle Sam got in and was played for the sucker.

J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture is under fire, charges of mal practice being made against him by the legislature. Regardless of the facts, this is one duplication in our state government which should be abolished. A. & M. College should be given all of the duties now being performed by this department.

The Memphis Democrat celebrated its first birthday as a daily newspaper last Sunday by issuing a 64-page edition. Lyman Robbins, the publisher, is due hearty congratulations for this edition; and the people of Memphis are to be congratulated upon having a live group of newspaper men as get out The Daily Democrat.

Auto accidents over the weekend took 65 lives. Most of the accidents were caused by either booze or speed—the two greatest menaces of the highway.

Boat Meets Foe, Breaks the Ice

In this North Atlantic version of a David versus Goliath drama, a U. S. coast guard boat approaches a mammoth berg to size it up before blowing it to pieces. This procedure must be repeated many times during the annual iceberg season so Atlantic shipping lanes may be free of the huge white menaces, broken off northern glaciers by the warm weather.

Keep your stock off the highways unless you wish to pay a pretty good sized fine, which will mean expensive pasturage. There is a new state law on the subject. Stock on the highway creates a very, very great hazard.

Business economists are of the unanimous opinion that America is in better condition than we were, but are not in nearly as good shape as we hope we are; in other words, it is still a long way out of the woods of depression.

A lot of folks condemned the legislature for not passing more of the 2300 laws introduced; but mighosh, how they would have raved if all that batch had been enacted into law.

Fred E. Wortham, former member of The News staff and Chamber of Commerce secretary, has started a new newspaper, the Palmer Press. The first issue indicates a substantial business future.

The Goodnight Trail to Palo Duro State Park is certainly improved with the coat of oil, which will soon be covered with asphalt topping.

European nations are willing to stage another war, but Uncle Sam seems leery about backing that gang on another fighting spree.

No dust to speak of during the past two weeks; that's news.

You gross more money with a FORD V-8 TRUCK and a bigger percentage is clear profit

THE moment you buy it, the Ford V-8 truck begins to save you money, because it will do more work—haul more tons at less cost. Its notably low fixed costs and its marked economy of operation and maintenance combine to reduce ton-mile haulage costs. Its new forward load distribution permits carrying more pay-load ahead of the rear axle. This results in longer tire and brake life—less body and chassis strain—more room in the cab.

We are ready to prove the ability as well as the economy of the 80 h. p. Ford V-8 truck. We will furnish the truck—even the gas and oil. You test it with your loads on your routes with your driver and check the results. There is no obligation. There are no strings to this offer—your sound business judgment will be our reward.

Dance Pageant To Be Presented Friday at W. T.

A benefit dance pageant sponsored by the Women's Physical Education Department and under the direction of Ruby Barksdale O'Keefe of that department will be staged Friday evening, May 17. The pageant will be a delineation of the evolution of ballroom dancing and will have a musical comedy touch through the use of a chorus line for a background. Admission will be fifteen and twenty-five cents. Proceeds go to the fund for a recreational hall for W. T. S. T. C.

The best dancers in college have volunteered their services and will execute some of the most popular dances of the east and west coast and of the Argentine. Also popular early waltzes will be done. Mary Louise Appel and Lewis Shirley will do the ever-popular Merry Widow Waltz. The Schottische, which is a group of ballroom dance, has been characterized as one of the cleverest dances in the review. Slower dances are the old fashioned Virginia Reel and an exhibition waltz.

Brilliant, fast-moving tangos, the continental, carioca, and the jazz nocturne will show the Spanish influence. Costumes will be adapted to the dances.

John Morris and his sister from Amarillo are scheduled to dance the carioca and the Charleston. Miss Morris has been invited as one of a group of four Texas girls to dance in the American Pageant in South Dakota.

William Garrett and his partner, Frances Alice Clark, will do a soft shoe number, and he will appear again in a novelty dance with Royce Park.

Frances Usery and George Brewer will dance the tango; and Frances Holman and Judge Williams will do the Continental.

These are only a few of the many colorful and beautifully done dances which are included in the benefit which, to repeat, is Friday evening in the Administration Auditorium. "Never before have so many boys been used in a dance pageant here," said Mrs. O'Keefe, "and they are co-operating wonderfully in these dances." Needless to say, a full house is expected.

Nothing quite like it has ever been produced at this school before, and the whole show has promises of a grand success.

Many Regions are Represented By Students

At the closing of the regular term this year, 1934-1935, more than a thousand students will flock to their homes all over Texas and the neighboring states. By every road and by the use of both thumb and fore-finger, they will be conveyed to their respective homes; a little better educated than when they first viewed the institution last September. They will go, and with each of them will go a little bit of the old school spirit to the four corners of Texas and the United States.

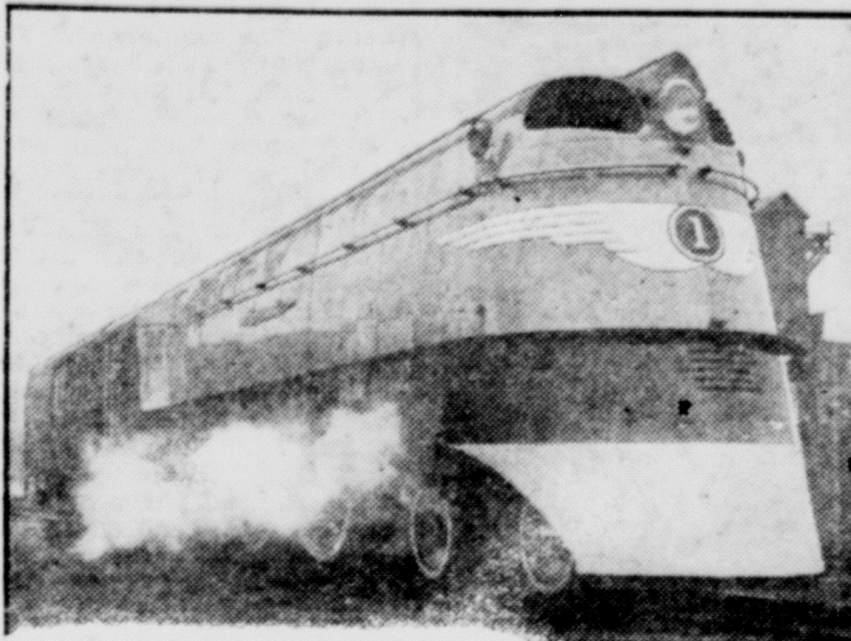

Scattered from one corner of Texas to the other three are the homes of the students of this institution. There are, of course, students from this region; but also of neighboring regions and even out of the way regions and distant states.

The counties of Texas represented are those of Armstrong, Bailey, Briscoe, Brown, Carson, Coleman, Collingsworth, Cottle, Crosby, Dallam, Dallas, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Delta, Dickens, Donley, Ector, Fannin, Fisher, Floyd, Foard, Gaines, Garza, Gray, Gregg, Hale, Hall, Hansford, Hareman, Hartley, Haskell, Hemphill, Houston, Howard, Hutchinson, Johnson, Jones, Kaufman, Kent, Knox, Lamar, Lamb, Lipscomb, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Mills, Mitchell, Montague, Moore, Motley, Navarro, Nolan, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parker, Parmer, Potter, Presidio, Randall, Roberts, Runnels, San Saba, Scurry, Shackelford, Sherman, Smith, Swisher, Tarrant, Taylor, Terry, Tom Green, Washington, Wheeler, Wichita, Wilbarger, and Wise County. These counties are represented by from 219 in our own Randall county to one student in some of the more distant counties.

Neighboring states represented are those of California, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, New Mexico, and Oklahoma. These states are each represented by from one to thirty-eight students.

Scattering their influence over a wide territory, they can scarcely fail to bring back to the institution next year a larger number than has gone out from the school this year.

MRS. J. S. HUMPHREYS HAS CLUB ON 10th ANNIVERSARY

Monday afternoon Mrs. J. S. Humphreys, founder and honorary member of the Junior Woman's Club gave a tea at her home in honor of the Club's Tenth Anniversary.

On September 14, 1925, sixteen young women were invited to the spacious home of Mrs. Humphreys for the purpose of organizing what is known as the Junior Woman's Club. Officers elected were: Mrs. J. W. Green president; Miss Esther Rudolph, vice president; Mrs. Hud Prichard, secretary; Mrs. Earl Potter, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty, treasurer.

Mrs. Daugherty has served as treasurer of the club during the entire time of its organization; and she and Mrs. Levi Cole have the honor of being the only charter members of the club to keep up membership over the 10 year period.

Several of the charter members were present for the Club's 10th birthday and regrets were received from Mrs. Green of Ralls, and Miss Rudolph of McAllen, that they were unable to be present on this occasion.

Mrs. W. E. Miller, president, presided over the meeting and presented Mrs. Humphreys with a lovely book of poems, "Friends," by Edgar A. Guest, and a coaster tea set. Plans were announced by the program committee on next year's program.

Mrs. W. Mitchell Jones gave a very interesting review of Giffill's "I went to Pitt College."

The guests were then invited into the dining room where Mrs. Miller, Mrs. A. L. Walsh, Mrs. Prichard and Mrs. Daugherty presided at the beautifully appointed tea table.

Guests were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Walsh, Mrs. Prichard, Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. H. W. Hartman, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. A. B. Brown, Mrs. W. L. Pearson, Mrs. C. W. Batchelder, and Miss Tennessee Malone; charter members present were: Mrs. Mark L. Foster, Mrs. A. R. Eastwood, Mrs. R. E. Harter; Mrs. Pearson of Lorenzo, special guest of the club.

ZITA H. D. CLUB WITH MRS. BOYD ELLIOTT

"In using bread flour as a substitute for cake flour, remove two tablespoons-full to each cup and add two tablespoons-full of corn starch and sift together several times to make it blend well," said Miss Sadie Kate Bass, Home Demonstration Agent of Randall county, to the Zita H. D. Club, which met Tuesday with Mrs. Eula Watson acting hostess at the home of Mrs. Boyd Elliott.

The club had an all day meeting to cover the subject of making Butter Cakes. At noon a two-course luncheon was served on tables beautifully decorated in pink and white with center bouquets of roses.

Those present were Mrs. H. M. Smith, Mrs. F. L. Davis, Mrs. A. J. Bushong, and Mrs. H. E. McCabe, visitors. The members were: Mrs. W. E. Wright, Mrs. D. C. McCormick, Mrs. J. P. Upchurch, Mrs. H. R. Pulton, Mrs. John Moody, Mrs. E. M. Elliott, Mrs. Emma Gruner, Mrs. Baile McCormick, Mrs. Boyd Elliott, Mrs. Lawrence Stewart, Miss Sadie Kate Bass, and Mrs. Eula Watson.

LAKESIDE H. D. CLUB WITH MRS. A. M. CURRY

The Lakeside H. D. Club met with Mrs. A. M. Curry on May 8 in an all day meeting. A good program was prepared and given on the kind and care of hose to be worn.

Mrs. Ralph Jones made one new foundation pattern and another one was checked by her.

At the noon hour a covered dish luncheon was served to Mrs. Arent, Mrs. Dalton, Miss Dickerson, visitors, and Mrs. L. B. Hammond, Mrs. Frank Garrett, Mrs. John Haynes, Mrs. Harley Burrus, Mrs. Cecil Berry, Mrs. John Dickerson, Mrs. A. R. Jones and the hostess, Mrs. A. M. Curry.

MRS. WM. ASH HAS LOVELY AFFAIR AT HOME

One of the most enjoyable affairs for the members of the West Side Home Demonstration Club was a party given last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Ash. Those whose birthdays came in the last half of the year entertained those whose birthdays came in the first half of the year with a joint birthday party and the courtesy will later be returned by those who were guests.

Spring flowers were used thru-out the entertaining rooms and various games and contests directed by Mrs. L. A. Donnell furnished the entertainment for the afternoon.

The guests were then invited into the dining room where tables had been placed and covers laid for refreshments. In the center of the tables were small individual cakes on each of which burned a tiny candle, fresh strawberry ice cream and fruit punch were served at the places. Small sprays of flowers were used for plate favors, further carrying out the pink and white color scheme. A heart-shaped birthday cake was cut by the guests and as the candles were blown out wishes were made. The lucky days, lucky months, and lucky gems were then read for the birthdays represented.

Those enjoying Mrs. Ash's hospitality were: Mrs. J. J. Pope, Mrs. B. A. Burrus, Mrs. J. L. Buchanan, Mrs. W. L. Arent, Mrs. T. A. Dowlen, Mrs. A. N. Burgan, Mrs. P. H. Baber, Mrs. L. A. Donnell, Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings, Mrs. Joe Tulek, Mrs. S. P. Dove, Mrs. L. H. Holman, Mrs. J. J. Wright, Mrs. Kathryn Sibley, Mrs. Wm. Ash, Mrs. Ed Bourn, Misses Kitty and Veda Burrus, and two visitors, Miss Myrtice Wright, and Mrs. H. B. Hunter of Hereford.

BUSINESS WOMEN ENTERTAINED AT SHEFFY HOME

Thursday night Miss Sadie Kate Bass and Miss Olive V. Schramm were hostesses to the members of the Business Woman's Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy. Pink radiance roses, baby's breath and tulips furnished the decorations in the spacious entertaining rooms.

Bridge at six tables was played until a late hour when a dessert course of strawberry panashaes was served.

Those members and guests present were: Misses Ann Smith, Louise Upchurch, Orpa Dennis, Fannie Sue Brasuel, Gwendolyn Black, Winnie Davis, Agnes Moore, Jewell Foster, Mattie Jordan and Gladys McClanahan; Mrs. Earl Robbins, Mrs. Don Trolinger, Mrs. W. A. Warren, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. Felix Neff, Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, Mrs. J. D. Barker, Mrs. James Cole, Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. N. E. McIntire, Mrs. Lee Foster, and Mrs. Lige Frieze; Miss Belle Schramm, and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sheffy.

JOHNSON 4-H CLUB GIRLS SEW ON DRESSES

"The seams along the side of a dress should be in a straight line with the little finger," says Miss Sadie Kate Bass, county home demonstration agent, in a meeting with the Johnson 4-H Club girls May 7.

All the girls present had their contest dresses basted together ready to be sewed with the sewing machine.

The following were present: Lula, Luella, and Ardelle Spiser, Dorothy, Evelyn, Margie, Carrie and Elsie Bauer, and Mrs. E. J. Bauer, club sponsor.

MRS. GREEN ENTERTAINS WITH DINNER AND BRIDGE

Last Thursday evening the home of Mrs. Geraldine Green attractively decorated with pink radiance roses and pink candles was the scene of a dinner party, followed by bridge as the evening's diversion.

Guests were Miss Miltia Hill, Miss Edna Graham, Miss Hellen Hickman, Mrs. C. A. Pierle, Miss Jean Moore, Miss Anna I. Hibbets, and Mrs. Laura Saunders.

AMARILLO GROUP GUESTS OF THE LITTLE HOUSE

On Tuesday afternoon, May 14, at three o'clock, Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page was hostess at an interesting meeting of the Daughters of the King, of St. Andrew's Church, Amarillo. Bishop Seaman, who had been the speaker at the college chapel and guest for dinner at Cousins Hall, was present and assisted in receiving the members of the order.

Miss Mary Alice Scott, a former president, presided over a business and devotional meeting, at the close of which Miss Hellen Hickman gave an interesting talk on the work of the Episcopal Church in Brazil. Miss Enid Mayer, of Amarillo, a student of W. T. S. T. C., rendered two very beautiful piano solos, and Bishop Seaman gave an inspirational address.

At the close of the program, delightful refreshments of sandwiches, cakes, cookies, bonbons, and tea were served, Mrs. C. A. Pierle pouring, assisted in the serving by Mrs. William Pitman, Mrs. C. J. E. Lowndes and Mrs. N. B. Pruett.

The Little House was beautifully decorated with gift flowers, yellow and lavender prevailing. The tea table was decorated with small yellow rosebuds and sprays of wistaria.

Canyon guests, besides Mrs. Pierle, were Mrs. Geraldine Green and Miss Nell Green, Miss Hellen Hickman, Miss Katherine Robinson, and Miss Velma Padgett. It was suggested by one of the Amarillo guests that this meeting of the Daughters of the King at the Little House should be made an annual feature.

A. A. U. W. GIVES TEA FOR GRADUATES

Cousins Hall with its decorations of various colored garden flowers was the beautiful setting for a tea given Wednesday evening by the Canyon branch of the American Association of University Women. Guests were all Canyon girls currently graduating from high school. In the receiving line were officers of the organization and the guest of honor, Mrs. Agnes Collins Smith, matron of Cousins Hall.

Refreshments of punch, wafers, and candies were served. Rosebuds were given as favors.

An effective program embracing two piano solos, two readings, two vocal solos was given by Miss Frances Usery, Miss Mabel Mims, and Miss Ada V. Clark, respectively.

In a talk both practical and challenging, Mrs. T. V. Reeves set forth some of the problems of a college freshman. Encouraging girls to use their time wisely, she said, "Time is one thing with which you are all equally endowed."

PRAIRIE STAFF PICNIC AT COUNTRY CLUB

Last Thursday evening members of the Prairie Staff and sponsor enjoyed a picnic at the Canyon Country Club, west of town. Varied forms of entertainment were participated in trying to get up an appetite. Even the childish sports of swinging, see-sawing, and croquet were indulged. Some of the bunch went fishing but were successful in catching only frogs.

A supper of broiled steak, wieners, and bacon, tomatoes, lettuce, olives, pickles and potato chips. The main course was preceded early in the afternoon by frolics and was followed with cookies and coffee.

BUFFET SUPPER GIVEN BY HOME EC. PRACTICE HOUSE

Home Economics students at the practice house entertained at a buffet supper Friday evening, May 10. The color scheme of pink and green was effectively carried out with roses and tapers.

A very delicious luncheon was served to Misses Marion Normington, Elizabeth Cox, Orpa Dennis, Mary E. Hudspeth, Maurita Taylor, Mable Jones, Gladys Stewart, Elizabeth McFarling, and Mesdames Elizabeth Fry Page, W. H. Bessire, S. S. Jackson, Texhoma; Agnes Smith, T. P. Johnston, Amarillo; Jordan A. Miller, and Ethel Fowler.

The practice house is located at 1908 Fourth Avenue. Six Home Economics students live there and manage the household. This is one of the advanced home economics courses. The girls find it truly helpful because here they have the experience of assuming the responsibility of taking charge of a home.

Pique of the Lot

This dancing frock in red pique marked with white cross bars, worn by Mary Astor, film player, is just the thing to wear at your favorite resort this summer. The simple lines of the frock are accentuated by the attractively wide shoulder capes which form revers at the V neckline in back.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB AT W. L. SMITH HOME

Mrs. W. L. Smith acted as hostess to the Friday Afternoon Bridge Club members and guests Friday afternoon at her home, 1206 Sixth avenue.

A very attractive color scheme was carried out in the entertaining rooms by using yellow tulips in one room and pink roses in the other. The table appointments corresponded with the decorations.

Refreshments of ice cream, and cake with iced tea and pink and yellow candies were served.

Those seated were: Mrs. W. L. Pearson, Mrs. Planigan Smith, Mrs. John B. Pope, Jr., Mrs. Edd Little, Mrs. C. L. Dickey, Mrs. Roscoe Davis, guests; and Mrs. M. S. Bishir, Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. Guy Harp, Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. Millard Word, Mrs. T. H. Knighton, Mrs. W. C. Black, Mrs. I. B. Carruth, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, and Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick, members.

BUTTER CAKES TOPIC OF DEMONSTRATION MAY 9

"The secret of good butter cakes," says Miss Sadie Kate Bass, Randall County Home Demonstration Agent at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Roy Roberts on May 9, "is to cream the sugar and butter well, add only a small amount of sugar to the butter at a time."

At the noon hour delicious sandwiches with hot chocolate was served to the following members: Mrs. Frank Culp, Mrs. Isom Hollabaugh, Mrs. W. M. Kinsey, Mrs. Oswald Jones, Mrs. Glenford Fowler, Mrs. Irwin Bauer, Mrs. Elmer Bauer, Mrs. Noah Grimes, Mrs. Ed Jones, and one guest, Mrs. Homer Kinsey.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. L. E. Tolbert on May 23.

LITTLE KATHERINE LOVE HAS PARTY

Little Miss Katherine Jo Love was guest of honor at a party given in her honor at her home east of the city. Out door games and dainty refreshments were enjoyed by twenty-five little guests.

Very Fetching Scene

Ann Dvorak, film actress, enjoys this game of having her two spaniels retrieve the ball. But the dogs seem to think the idea's all wet; or maybe they hate to leave the side of their charming mistress.

BUFFET SUPPER GIVEN SUNNY HILL CLUB

The Sunny Hill Home Demonstration Club members and their husbands enjoyed a buffet supper Friday night, May 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lehnick.

After supper had been served games of "42" and bridge were enjoyed at several tables.

Those present were Miss Ruth Cross of Canyon, Miss Roberta Campbell, Miss Lois Moreman, Mrs. Gertrude Wade, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gist, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ratjen, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. West Texas Profs In Demand As Year Draws To Close

Professors of West Texas State Teachers College were very much in demand by the high schools over this section of the country the year round, but especially are their services in demand around the close of the school year.

This fact is illustrated by the number of requests that each of the college instructors receives during the spring to appear on Commencement Programs and other programs of graduation exercises. A typical weekly schedule of the college professors is Mr. S. H. Condon's program for the balance of the week.

On Tuesday, May 14, Mr. Condon will attend the annual meeting of the Texas Wheat Growers Association directors in Amarillo. Mr. Condon has been a director of this organization for the past four years. "This group of officials have been most loyal in their support of the college in every issue that has ever come up," Mr. Condon said.

Wednesday, May 15, Mr. Condon will address all of the seventh grade graduates of Potter County at the McKinley school in Amarillo for the county-wide commencement program.

"New Patterns of Life" will be the subject of Mr. Condon's address when he delivers the Commencement Address to the Lelia Lake High School on Thursday night of this week. Mr. Condon will be principal speaker on the Commencement Program of the Spring Lake High School, Friday.

Three requests to appear on commencement programs were turned down for this week by Mr. Condon. He has to have at least two hours every week free for fishing, he said.

Guleke Presents Museum With Valuable Book

J. O. Guleke of Amarillo, member of the State Board of Education, has presented the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society with a book containing pictures of the presidents of the United States from Washington to Grover Cleveland, inclusive. These are very fine hand-made steel engravings and beneath each one is a facsimile signature of the president pictured.

The cuts were engraved by H. G. Hall and Sons, 13 Barkley St., New York.

Besides their historical significance, persons interested in the study of character as reflected in hand writing and the shape of heads will find the book particularly interesting.

Mrs. Ted Iribeck and her mother, Mrs. Skypala, were hostesses on Tuesday afternoon to the Ladies' Altar Society, at her home, when the society met in its regular social. Those present were: Mrs. E. J. Friemel, Mrs. Bauer, Mrs. Max Hoffman, Mrs. C. J. Beckman, Mrs. Joe Beckman, Mrs. Jim Boyd, and Mrs. W. P. Jansen. The next meeting will be May 21, at the home of Mrs. Fischbaugh.

The wedding of Miss Marie Hollenstein to George Venhaus was celebrated at a Nuptial Mass on Tuesday morning at St. Mary's Church. The celebrant was Father Dolje. The bride was daintily robed in a white silk dress, with veil and accessories, and carried white roses and sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Emma, who wore a lemon-colored dress and white hat. Mr. Venhaus had his brother, Paul, as best man. The bride's mother wore blue, while the groom's mother was in brown ensemble. The church had been prettily decorated for the occasion. In the evening there was a wedding dance at the Hall.

Gertrude Friemel and Bertha Bedenk visited at Hollenstein's Sunday; Leo Artho at E. J. Friemel's; the Henry Batenhorsts at Wicks and J. Batenhorst's. The Fred Beckmans at W. Beckman's. Cooks at Westoffs, and Westoffs at Wicks.

Mrs. Cook was home for Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Artho were in Hereford Monday.

Bedenks and the Clarence Beckmans were at the motorcycle races at Cummings, Sunday.

Evers were in both Amarillo and Canyon last Friday.

Some hail and showers are passing, fine, but not a season. Maybe moisture to bring seed up. We are hoping for more.

Rev. J. A. Lindley and wife were with us yesterday, second Sunday. He gave us an excellent sermon in the morning paying Mother's Day a fine tribute to motherhood. Inclement weather prevented singing and services at night.

M. E. Counterman and family, M. C. Sluder and family from Happy visited the paternal Sluder home Sunday afternoon; also Mrs. Bonnie Sluder and children with Mrs. Ada Smith and hers.

A surprise celebration of Mother's Day and her birthday three days later gave Mrs. Bessie Lane an agreeable surprise Sunday. Relatives and friends gathered in the Lane home unexpected to her. Relatives from Pampa and Canyon, 55 registered, and some who failed to register. An ample and sumptuous dinner was spread at noon, to which the crowd did full justice.

D. L. Adams left Saturday to join the farmers of the different counties of the Wheat Growers' Association on their journey to Washington, D. C.

Joyce Lane left Sunday morning for Amarillo to join a crowd of the "Weaver" Aluminum, going to a convention in Abilene.

Billie Mac McGehee is in a critical condition; two physicians in attendance. We are all anxious about him.

Play at the school house by the girls Wednesday night. Proceeds to go to the benefit of the girls' sweaters. 10c and 20c admission.

Football Schedule For Fall Announc- ed By Baggett

Coach Al Baggett has released the Buffaloes' football schedule for 1935, complete except for one game.

September 20th the Buffaloes make their debut for the home town in a night game with the Panhandle Aggies. The second game on September 28 will be played with Southeastern Teachers at Vernon.

The schedule will include ten games, running from September 20 to November 23. All but three of the games will be played in Canyon on the Buffalo gridiron.

The outstanding journey for the Buffaloes will be a trip to El Paso to play the strong Texas School of Mines team on October 26. November 23 the Buffaloes will wind up their season at Alpine against the Sul Ross State Teachers College.

Other outstanding teams on the schedule besides Sul Ross and El Paso Miners are McMurry College of Abilene, an inter-sectional game with St. Benedict's Ravens of Atchison, Kansas for Homecoming, November 2, and the Central Oklahoma Teachers, winners of the Oklahoma Conference.

The complete schedule is as follows:

*Sept. 20, Panhandle A. & M., Canyon.

*Sept. 28, Southeastern State Teachers of Durant, Okla., at Vernon, Texas.

*Oct. 5, Texas Wesleyan College, Canyon.

*Oct. 11, McMurry College, Canyon.

*Oct. 18, New Mexico Normal U., Canyon.

Oct. 16, Texas School of Mines, El Paso.

Nov. 2, St. Benedict's (Homecoming) Canyon.

Nov. 9, N. M. M. I., Canyon.

Nov. 16, Central Okla. Teachers, Canyon.

Nov. 23, Sul Ross State Teachers, Alpine.

* Indicates night games.

Rankin's Team Beats Champs' By 13 Points

Captain John Rankin's White team captured the third intra-squad game Saturday night 13 to 0 to give them two victories and one tie in the three game series against Ezell Champion's Maroon clad team.

Early in the second quarter Craig Walling intercepted a pass from Champion and raced 45 yards to tally. He kicked the goal to make the score 7 to 0.

In the last period the second score came, also as a result of an intercepted pass when Captain Rankin grabbed a stray heave and went 52 yards to score. Rankin missed the try for point.

Saturday's game marked the close of seven weeks of spring training for the Buffaloes. Both teams were pretty evenly matched, and since they both knew each others plays, the defense stood out much stronger than the offense.

However the fierce blocking and tackling of both teams sent the fans away satisfied that the Buffaloes in the 1935 grid season would be at a par at least with all their opponents.

Playing under the Maroon colors were: Toby Waggoner, James Baggett, and Jewel Meacham.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

In Early Season Play, Whitehead, Blanton, Babich, and Other Rooks Are Showing Exceptional Stuff on the Mound

BY PHILIP MARTIN

THERE'S a mighty fine crop of rookie hurlers a-growin' on major league lots this spring, neighbor.

Consider, if you will, the case of young Johnny Whitehead, the freshman flinger, whose stellar work on the hill was instrumental in getting the White Sox off to a flying start.

The manner in which this 26-year-old rookie set down the Tigers and Browns augurs well for the future success of Jimmy Dykes' pitching staff.

Chicago scribes have labeled Whitehead the finest prospect to come up to the White Sox since Ted Lyons broke in. He throws a baffling sinker in addition to a two-speed curve, a slow one and a fast-breaking hook, both of which are delivered with the same motion; and when facing a right-handed batter he tosses his curves sidarm to further the deception. This young man has potentialities.

You might also keep a weather eye on Johnny's teammate, Joe Vance, another piece of promising timber.

Still another first-year man who looks like ready money is Cy Blanton of the Pirates. This red-headed Oklahoman inaugurated the season with a one-hit victory over the very tough Cardinals.

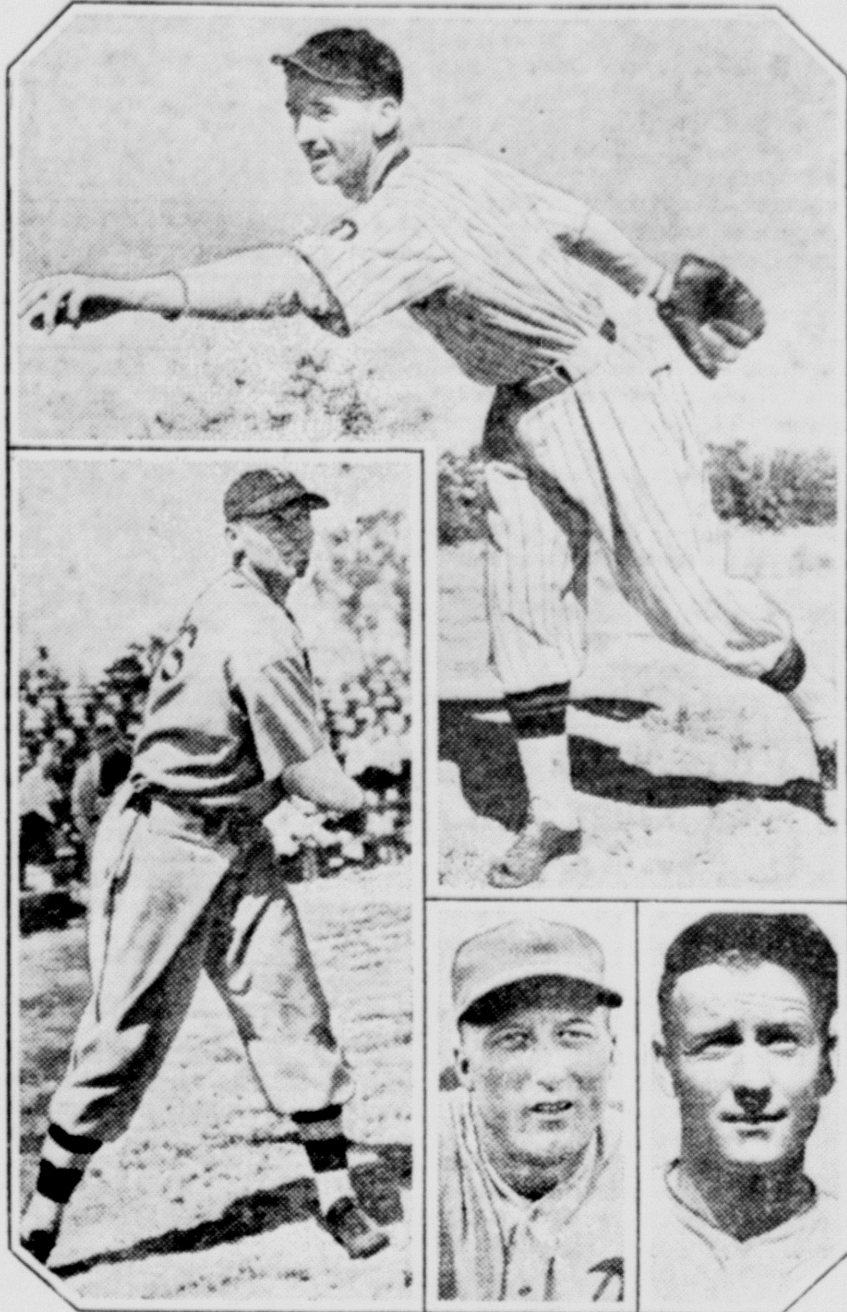

The next time out Cy fanned 11 Cincinnati Reds in chalking up his second win, while his third triumph was again at the expense of the champion Cardinals. We venture to predict he'll make the grade.

JOHNNY BABICH, Brooklyn moundman, gets our vote of confidence for his very fine work. You'll be hearing a lot of this young man, who just missed carrying his initials in the Hall of Fame when the Phillies managed to eke out a solitary bingle from his offerings in a recent game.

Joe Sullivan, fresh from Hollywood, seems to have a great deal of what it takes and should prove valuable to Mickey Cochrane as a relief hurler if he fails to make the regular Tiger pitching corps this season.

Sullivan has enough speed to blast the onion by the batters in the pinches.

Connie Mack's aged heart has

been warmed this spring by the form exhibited by Vernon Wilshire, a collegiate product. This close-fisted young feller allowed but two hits recently, hurling against the Nats.

EX-HEAVYWEIGHT JACK SHARKEY now confines his thumping to the keys of his piano . . . he's still a strict amateur at this pastime, although he shows lots of promise. . . . Wilmington, Del., legalizes both racing and baseball . . . but that town has neither a ball yard nor a race track. . . . After Teddy Yarosz sheds the middleweight title, it may still remain in Pittsburgh, a city where this specie of fighter abounds, in the possession of a lad named Al Quastil.

ends; Clinton Meek, R. D. Wheelock, and Wyatt Batson, tackles; George Wright and Oscar Hinger, guards; Woodrow Marchbanks and Grover Dennis, centers—Ezell Champion, Lwood Dow, Lewis Gibson, Floyd Murry, Jack Jennings, Conway Butler, and Burnie Davis in the back field.

The victorious White team was made up of: Stina Cain, Jack Davis, and Craig Walling, ends; John Lee, Ernest Patton, tackles; John Rankin, George Caviness, and Frank Greer, guards; Leo Jackson and B. F. Cain, centers; and Vernon Johnson, Lawrence Clark, Tom Slack, Frank Van Noy, Ray Cox, Ed Miller, and H. D. Stewart, backs.

Spring Basketball Began Immediately After Football

With spring football closing last Saturday night, the West Texas State Teachers College Buffaloes exchanged their moleskins for a pair of shorts and a jersey and without a pause started right in with spring basketball Monday afternoon.

Next year the Buffaloes start off their schedule a little early by participating in a tournament at Winfield, Kansas from December 30 through January 2.

Spring practice will run through two weeks. Coach Baggett will give the squad the basic fundamentals of the game, help individuals on their weak spots, and work some on team play so as to set the stage for next year.

Captain-elect Willie Boedeker of Lockney will lead the five lettermen into the practice. Curtis Clement of Wellington, Audell Kimmins of Canyon, Lawrence Clark of Turkey, and Jack Davis of Memphis are the returning lettermen besides Captain Boedeker.

Three lettermen from this year's team which had a fairly successful season climaxed by a trip to Denver for the National Tournament will be missing next year.

John Walker, three year letterman from Spearman, and Leonard Britt, two year man from Canyon, are lost because of graduation, while Captain McMinn is graduating to take a job in Kirkland, his home town, although he had one more year of eligibility.

Vernon Johnson of Childress and

Ray Vineyard of Claude are squadmen who will be eligible next year, and several promising freshmen from the team which won nineteen out of twenty-two games this year are reporting to the varsity.

Most outstanding freshmen prospects for the varsity are B. F. Taylor of Kirkland, Craig Walling of Farwell, Don Savage of Canyon, Oscar Hinger of Endee, New Mexico, and Ray Cox of Vernon.

With five lettermen returning who saw lots of service this year and some outstanding prospects from the Yearlings, prospects are rosy for a basketball team in 1936 that will better the record of the this year's Buff team which won twelve out of seventeen games and never lost a series all year.

Plans Announced For Opening Sum- mer Session W. T.

Announcement has been made that a number of outstanding teachers have been secured for the summer session of the college.

Miss Annie McDonald, for many years primary supervisor of the Amarillo public schools, will work in the education department. Miss Bertha Stephens, who was a member of the faculty here a few years ago, will return this summer to work in the Training School. Miss Stephens is now on the staff of the Denver public schools.

Miss Ethleen Murrell of Pampa will teach social sciences in the high school of the Training School this summer. Since going to Pampa Miss Murrell has prepared a work book for teachers of Junior High School history.

Miss Maud Fletcher, art supervisor of the Amarillo public schools, has been secured for work in the art department.

From the University of Texas Dr. Arlin Turner and Luther Gray have been secured, both of them to teach in the department of English. Dr. Turner was a member of the faculty last summer and Mr. Gray formerly taught with Dr. Fronabarger at Denton.

Prin. J. B. Pope, Jr., of the Canyon high school will teach in the department of government.

There will be two visiting teachers in the department of home economics. Miss Fern Bowman, graduate of the local college and of the University of Chicago and now of Canal Zone, Panama, will begin work here July 1. Miss Hazel McKibben of Iowa State College at Ames will give a special course for teachers of home economics.

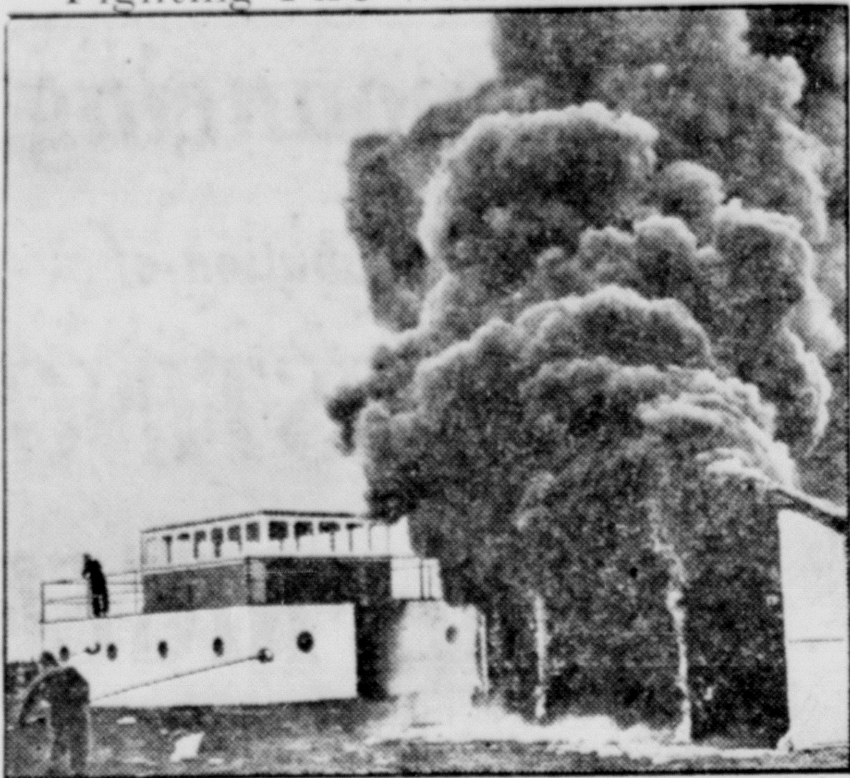

Emmitt Hazelwood, formerly of Canyon, will come from Cornell University to teach for half the summer in the department of physics.

Mrs. Hugh Brooks, formerly Miss Margaret Justice, will return this summer to teach again in the music department. Mrs. Mae Slack Coffey will teach piano during the summer, and Charles Strain, Jr., will substitute for his father in the band department.

Charles R. Sherer of the mathematics department of the Texas Christian University will be a member of the local mathematics department this summer.

For the first time in several years courses in journalism will be a part of the offering of the summer school.

Fighting Fire With Gas Bombs

Playing with fire to good purpose, the man shown at left is about to hurl a bomb into the blazing structure. The resulting explosion produces a gas blanket that quickly smothers flames. Demonstration of these bombs, invented especially to combat fires caused by aerial torpedoes during wartime, was held at Vincennes, France.

mer school. Miss Emil Brewer, a former student and once a member of The Canyon News staff, will give these courses. Miss Brewer is receiving her degree in journalism at the University of Missouri this spring and will come immediately to Canyon.

Besides these visiting instructors, a number of outstanding speakers have been secured for the summer session.

Attended Chamber of Commerce Meet Held in Plainview

A number of Canyon citizens attended the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Tuesday and Wednesday at Plainview.

Among those attending were: Wallace R. Clark, director of the Chamber; J. H. Cox, Jr., president of the Canyon Chamber; Mayor C. R. Burrow; Frank R. Phillips, Wayne McCormick, J. B. Elliston, and Tommie Elliston.

Mrs. Lee Witcher of Amarillo is a house guest of Mrs. Ruby Murphy this week. Mrs. Witcher has recently returned from Arkansas.

Rotarians Make Re- ports On District Meet Last Week

Tuesday was report day at the Canyon Rotary Club, with President Bob Jarrett leading off with a report on his trip to Nashville. "Over there they are asking, will it ever stop raining?" stated Mr. Jarrett. He found plenty of rain on his trip, but it was in the wrong places.

President-elect Irby Carruth made an extended report on the district convention at Midland, which was attended last week by five members of the club. "Rotary is an educational institution," stated Mr. Carruth in reviewing statements of the convention. Rotary educates its members in civic needs so they will get out and do the work.

Others making a short report were Sylvester Ingham, Harry Brown, Oscar Gano, and Bob Foster.

Visitors present were: W. S. Norman, J. H. Florey, W. W. Rusk, and Herman Ekkelrod of Amarillo; H. P. Pearson of Lorenzo.

Bill Redfearn Is Killed Monday a. m. In Car Accident

Bill Redfearn, 24, was killed near Hale Center early Monday morning while returning from Lubbock with two young men. The car turned over in making a curve, throwing young Redfearn through the top. He was dead when another car reached the scene.

Ed Pierce, driver of the car, had his pelvis bone broken in five places, and was otherwise badly injured. He is not expected to live.

Lucius Halbert, the third boy, received a broken arm and collar bone.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Redfearn, formerly of Canyon, but now residing in Plainview. He is survived by his parents and two brothers, Jim Blair, of Amarillo, and Dick of Plainview. Mrs. W. A. Jennings of Canyon is his aunt; Mrs. Columbia Redfearn and Q. C. Redfearn are his cousins.

The funeral services were held in Plainview Tuesday afternoon at the Methodist church.

Canyon Golfers in Another Win Over Tulia Team Here

Twenty-one golf players from Tulia visited the Canyon Club Sunday in a return match play.

Canyon won 15 matches; Tulia 5; one tie.

The two teams played at Tulia the week before, with Canyon as the winner.

Mrs. Phebe Warner Died Tuesday p. m., at Home in Claude

Mrs. Phebe K. Warner of Claude died Tuesday night at her home following an illness of pneumonia.

Mrs. Warner was one of the best writers of Texas. She was a most ardent worker among women's organizations in the Southwest. No woman in this section was better known, or held in higher esteem than Mrs. Warner.

For several years she served on the Texas Parks Board and worked hard for the establishment of the Palo Duro State Park.

She has lectured upon many occasions in Canyon at W. T., and always made a profound impression by the thoughtfulness of her talks.

Her husband, Dr. W. A. Warner, died last July.

In 1932 she was a candidate for congressman at large, running fourth in a race with 10 men opponents.

Baggett Will Take Buffalo Football Team to Vernon

Coach Al Baggett was in Vernon Tuesday making final arrangements for a game which has been scheduled this fall with Southeastern Teachers of Durant, Okla., to be played in Vernon.

Baggett was high school coach at Vernon for four years. Assistant Coach Bob Cox was a member of his team. Ed Miller, Roy Cox and Toby Waggoner, Buffalo players, are from Vernon.

Friends of Coach Baggett have urged this game to be played in Vernon as a home coming game for himself, Bob Cox and the three Vernon boys.

Singing Meet Will Be Held Sunday at Baptist Church

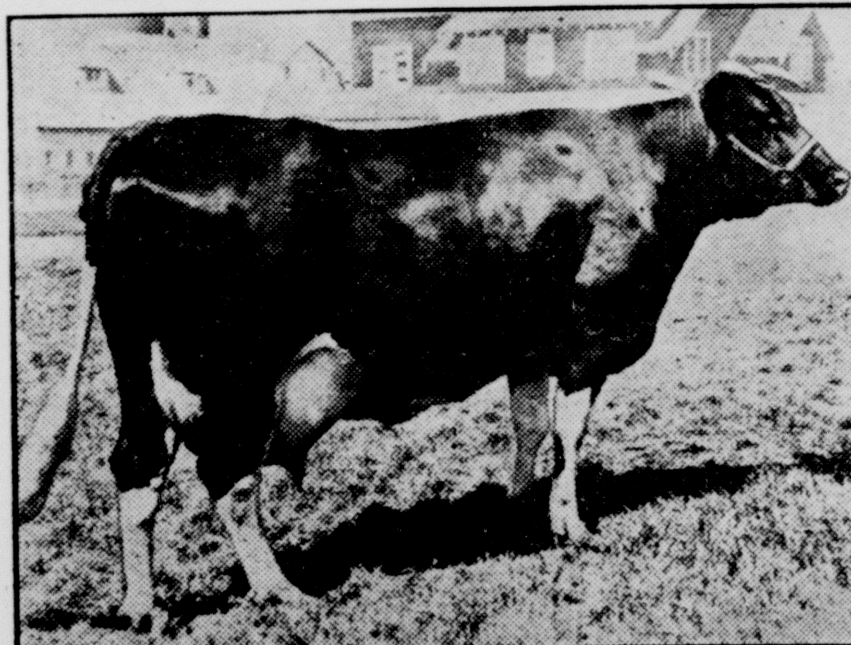

Singers of Randall county are invited to the Baptist church Sunday afternoon for a sing song. John P. Taylor, president of the Plateau Singing Convention, will direct the singing. The meeting is non-denominational.

The church hymnals will be used from 1:30 to 3:00 o'clock. After that hour a number of special selections will be put on by quartets, including the Beacon quartet of Amarillo.

Mrs. R. W. Ratcliff returned Tuesday from Pampa where she has been visiting during the past week.

Mrs. M. A. Henson of Hereford was in Canyon yesterday visiting with friends.

This Bossy's a Regular Dairy!

The world's champion butter-producing cow—that's the title claimed for Femco Johanna Bess Payne, above, by her owner, F. E. Murphy of Breckenridge, Minn. This 9-year-old registered Holstein cow has just set up a record of 22,727.1 pounds of milk, from which 1525.5 pounds of butter were churned, in 365 days.

The standards for the person chosen for the Balfour Plaque were scholarship, loyalty, and sportsmanship. Mable has entered many activities; they are: tapping for programs, basketball, volleyball, tennis, pep leader, football queen, sophomore queen, band, orchestra, Tawamania Club, and came out for debate.

JUNIORS GIVE '35 BANQUET

Junior - Senior Banquet
Has Gypsy Camp
For Motif

"Oh, sing to me, gypsy—" sang the gypsy sophomore serving girls as the juniors and seniors walked into the American Legion Hall to the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

The place cards were small, black cardboards which held mints, nuts, and verse fortunes. When everyone had found his chair, the juniors sang "The Gypsy Love Song."

Jack Taylor, the toastmaster, gave the seniors their welcome in "The Call of the Wild." Bill Cone, president of the senior class, responded with "Heeding the Call."

Fay Plaster read "Gypsies," by Raychel Field, accompanied by Mrs. Jesse Barker, at the piano, in "Londonderry Aire." Mrs. Barker continued the accompaniment for Oscar Croson's violin number, "Londonderry Aire."

Hal Gamble read "Mia Carliotta" and "Two Loves," by Daly.

Joe Morris gave his philosophical views of various faculty members' traits in his speech, "Wanderers." Principal John B. Pope gave a (Continued on last page)

Home Ec. Class Has Style Show

A style show was held in the Home Economics Department Friday, and clothing was judged. Both second year classes judged their garments.

The following children modeled garments: Anna Lou Samuelson, Barbara Jean Hill, Ruth Price, Tommy Terrill Christian, Marguerite Furlow, Charles Dickenson, and Alberta Brown.

After the children had modeled the dresses, Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel commented on each garment and each girl judged the others garment.

Seniors Present "Balmy Days" To Large Crowd Fri.

The Senior Class of '35 presented its play "Balmy Days," last Friday night, to a comparatively large crowd.

"Balmy Days" involved a mad household, a worm-chasing professor, and a haughty, rich, and dirty villain, villainess, and their daughter. The Gateses had lost their money and moved to a deserted lumber camp. Through super-human and womanly wiles, Grandma Gates managed to keep the family in one place despite the destruction caused by the influential Wilstons. Grandma not only starts the moss-covered stone of family affairs rolling back to prosperity, but finds herself involved in the avalanche and she rides merrily to a "happily ever after" fade-out with one of the Romeos.

All characters in the play starred in their roles as the plot did not involve any leading role.

Miss Irene Angel, instructor in Dramatic Arts, directed the play and the cast included: Grandma Gates, Winnie Dee Hicks; Phyllis Gates, Thelma Bryant; Peter Gates, Hampton Lisle; Millicent Gates, Jewel Chambers; Jack Caston, Kenneth Black; Gerald Barker, Bill Cone; Mr. Ogelthorpe Wilston.

TAYLOR HEADS '35-'36 SENIORS

Lois Goodrich Chosen Senior Sponsor by Acclamation

Jack Taylor was elected president of the Senior Class of '35 and '36 at a class meeting last Tuesday. The class also chose, by acclamation, as their sponsor Miss Lois Goodrich.

After heated campaign speeches, Jack Taylor was elected to his office by receiving 17 of the 25 votes cast by members of the Junior Class.

Jack has participated in most of his class activities during his high school years. He has played basketball two years, one of which he was on the regular team at the position of forward; was secretary of his class during his sophomore year, president during his junior year, and he also went out for football this year and is a prospective player for the next season. Jack was chosen managing editor of The Eagle's Tale for next year.

Seniors Originate Trip to Carlsbad

Seniors To Leave School U. S. Flag and School Ensign

The Senior Class of '35 will leave an American flag and a school flag to the school as their gift. The custom of leaving some gift to the school has been carried on since the class of 1914 which left the Pilgrim Plaque which is now hanging in the main hall of the high school building.

School Flag
The school flag will be of purple silk with a white fringe around it and the eagle and C. H. S. emblem embroidered on the purple field in white. The American flag will be of silk; both flags standards will be topped with the eagle emblem. These flags will be placed on either side of the stage in the auditorium.

Former Class Gifts
Last year's Senior Class left the grey curtains on the stage; the '33 seniors donated the grey window drapes in the auditorium; the seniors of '32 left the radio in the journalism and music room as their gift. Other senior classes have given such gifts as: the purple curtains on the auditorium stage, the various sets of scenery, and the trophy case in the hall.

Money Raising Methods
The money for these gifts has been accumulated by the various senior classes during the year they were seniors by: the Senior Play, Stunt Night, Carnival Night, and a number of more methods as bake sales, candy sales, and box suppers.

If everyone would boost for Canyon, as strenuously as he does for some favorite organization he belongs to, what a place we could make it.

The senior class, composed of 47 members, have originated and revived a few ideas. They took the first trip to Carlsbad that any class has ever taken from C. H. S. They also revived "Kid Day."

The seniors went to Carlsbad April 28, and returned April 29. They were accompanied by the sponsors, Coach Cleveland Jones, and Miss Grace Clark, and three mothers of students, Mrs. Lorenzo Wirt, Mrs. R. T. Bowman, and Mrs. Joe Black.

The seniors brought back "Kid Day" to Canyon High School on March 1. Boys in play suits and girls in short dresses were scattered about the campus. After school they went to the theater where they saw "Babbit" on the screen. At a "Kid Party" that night, Kenneth Cayton, who was dressed in a play suit of yellow and white, won the boys' prize for being the most like a "kid," and Mary Ella Lowe, who was dressed in a red-checked, yoked dress, won the girls' prize.

The class officers were chosen at the Junior-Senior Banquet last year. They were Bill Cone, president; Curtis Ellison, vice-president; Jack Oldham, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Joe H. Black was chosen Senior Mother by acclamation. Coach Cleveland Jones and Miss Grace Clark were chosen sponsors.

Seniors in Sports
The majority of the football team was made up of seniors. To be exact, there were eight seniors who lettered in football. They were: Curtis Ellison, captain; Hampton Lisle, Jack Pitts, Wade Johnson, O. M. Solomon, Edd Brooks, Kenneth Black, and Chris Wooten.

The seniors who lettered in basketball were Lawrence Fulton, Curtis Ellison, and O. M. Solomon. In intramural basketball the (Continued on last page)

Seniors To Present Gift Of School Flag At Commencement

Herman C. Pipkin of Amarillo and Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum of Canyon will deliver the address and sermon at the Commencement Exercises for the 47 seniors. The Commencement Sermon will be given Sunday night at the Methodist Church at 8 o'clock Monday night in the Canyon High School Auditorium.

For the processional at the Commencement Exercises, the orchestra will play. The senior girls will sing "My Task," by Ashford.

Two of the senior girls, Mary May Harrison and Gladys McBride will play a duet, "Minuet Waltz" by Chopin.

The gift of the Senior Class will be presented, followed by introduction of Mary May Harrison, valedictorian, and Jack Oldham, salutatorian. The awards will be given to Curtis Ellison, the best all-around athlete, and Mable Schmitz, winner of the place on the Balfour Plaque.

The recessional will take place after the Pledge Song.

Mrs. Lee Foster will play for the processional at the Commencement Sermon. The invocation will be given by the Rev. Stuart Marsh, pastor of the First Christian Church.

Following the hymns, "Come Thou Almighty King" and "Lead On, O King Eternal" will be sung by the assembly.

Rev. J. R. Hicks will give the scripture reading. The C. H. S. Chorus will sing "My Creed" by Garrett. Rev. Quattlebaum, minister of the First Methodist Church of Canyon, will deliver the sermon.

The assembly will sing, "God Will Take Care of You," followed by the benediction by Rev. C. L. Dickey; then the recessional will begin.

PEP LEADERS ELECTED MON.

Mary Ella Davis And Marie O'Donald Chosen

Mary Ella Davis and Marie O'Donald were elected pep leaders for '35 with Fay Plaster as president, at a meeting of the Purple Pep Squad Monday noon. Other officers elected were Carolyn Mayfield, vice president, and Anna Kathryn Overton, secretary.

Mary Ella Davis is editor of next year's The Eagle's Tale, was valedictorian in the seventh grade, was president of her class in her sophomore year; lettered in basketball this year, is news editor of commencement edition, and was queen of the Sophomore Class.

Marie O'Donald is a member of the Home Economics Club, plays the piano, and is a member of the Dramatic Club.

Fay Plaster was vice president of the Home Economics Club last year, active in expression, was a Girl Scout, and is a member of The Eagle's Tale staff this year.

Warren and Bellah In Recital Today

This afternoon at 4 o'clock in the high school auditorium, Mrs. Lee Foster, instructor of music, will present Rena Beth Bellah and Bernard Warren in a music recital honoring their graduation from the seventh grade.

FACULTY HAS 13 MEMBERS

Five Men Teaching; Eight Women In C. H. S.

There are 13 members of Canyon High School Faculty. The women have a slight edge over the men, for there are eight women teachers, while there are only five men.

I. B. Carruth, the superintendent of the Canyon Public Schools, teaches Commercial Geography, and English History by contract. Mr. Carruth was co-sponsor of the sophomore class the first half of the year.

Principal John B. Pope, Jr., Dean of Boys, and co-sponsor of the sophomore class, is a very important member of the school faculty. Besides taking care of the school activities he teaches Commercial Law, Economics, and Civics. Mr. Pope is head of the High School Sunday School Department of the Methodist Church.

Cleveland Jones is another member of the faculty. He is head of the coaching department, which takes in football, and basketball. He also teaches history and Commercial Art.

Lois Goodrich, sponsor of the Junior Class, and sponsor of the Press Club, teaches Journalism and Senior English. Miss Goodrich spends her summers in Connecticut where she is a director of Life Girls Camp.

Mattie Jordan is head librarian of Canyon High School. She teaches Latin and Second Year English. Miss Jordan is co-sponsor of the sophomore class.

Jewell Foster teaches Spanish, History II and English I in high school.

Grace Clark is co-sponsor of the Senior Class. She teaches Mathematics, which consists of Algebra 1 and 2, Plane Geometry, and Business Arithmetic.

Ollie T. Barker teaches Junior Business Training, Mechanical Drawing, and Manual Training.

Fannie Sue Brasuel teaches Typing and Home Economics. She is sponsor of the Home Economics Club and co-sponsor of the Freshman Class.

Aubrey Fox teaches Algebra 1 and science, which consists of Chemistry, Biology, and General Science. He is sponsor of the Radio Club and co-sponsor of the Freshman Class.

Irene Angel teaches Junior English in C. H. S. She gives private expression lessons, and was director of both the one-act and the senior plays.

Mrs. Lee Foster, who gives private music lessons, is sponsor of the Pep Squad.

Mrs. J. D. Barker, who teaches Public School Music in the grades, also has a music class in high school.

Many Improvements Made on CHS Campus this School Term

During the school term, several improvements have been made around the school building for recreational and economical purposes.

Ping-Pong Sets Bought
Ping-pong sets were bought by the school, and placed in the boys and girls locker rooms; tables were made by O. T. Barker of the Manual Training Department; also the frame around the edge of Principal John B. Pope's desk that holds the glass plate over the top of the desk in place was constructed by Mr. Barker.

Improvements In Building
Screens have been placed over the north windows of the high school gymnasium as a protection against indoor baseballs; an enclosure has been built in the southwest corner of the gymnasium in which old chairs, desks and other materials are kept; small cases with glass fronts have been placed over the fire hose; the tables in the typing room were constructed in the summer, and the one in Mr. Pope's office was built this fall. All this work has been done by Milton Kiker, janitor. Lilac shrubs were set out in front of the building by him this spring.

Wade Johnson plans to go to California in the fall, where he will attend college at the University of Los Angeles.

Mary Collins will visit her sister, Mrs. Terrill Christian of Claude, when school is out.

Girls' Debate Team Make Finals In District League

The Canyon High School girls' debate team lost to Amarillo in the finals at the District Interscholastic League Meet on April 13. This climaxed an active year's work for the debaters. The boys' team lost to Amarillo in the semi-finals of the district meet.

The subject for debate was: Resolved: that the government should own and operate all electric light and power utilities.

Both debate teams attended the Lubbock and Amarillo tournaments this year. At the Amarillo tournament, the boys' team was defeated in the semi-finals by the Amarillo team which went to the state meet at Austin.

Both teams met twice and defeated teams from Hereford, Bovina, Priona, Borger, and Pampa. The girls' team won a decision from Dimmitt.

Debates were lost by both teams to Amarillo, Lubbock, and Sweetwater.

Principal John B. Pope and S. B. Orton coached the speakers.

Members of the boys' team were Hal Gamble and Bob Orton; the girls' team consisted of Marye Ella Lowe and Ruby Foster. Mable Schmitz was active in debate work until basketball season interfered with her work.

With the exception of Hal Gamble, a junior, the debaters will be graduated this year.

Completion of Unit Ends Year's Work Of Dramatic Club

After presenting several plays in assembly, and with their work in the club, the Dramatic Club has accomplished the aims which it set at its organization on October 23, 1934.

The main aim of the club was for the members to develop in ability in every phase of dramatic work, acting, make-up, and stage arrangement.

Choose Officers
The following officers for the year were elected:

Jack Oldham, President.
Marielle Oldham, Vice President.
Ruth McCrerey, Secretary-Treasurer.

Billie Bee Flesher, Parliamentarian.
Irene Angel, Sponsor.

Work on Pantomimes

The club members voted to work on pantomimes as their first unit of work, and original pantomimes were given and criticized at the first three meetings of the club. The qualities of good pantomimes were discussed by Miss Angel.

Give Plays

The first play given in the club was "All on a Summer's Day," by Colin Clements. The characters were:

One—Beulah Brasuel.
Two—Rowena Lockwood.
Three—Chloie Hall.

Mammy, a dark messenger of fate—Ruth McCrerey.

This play was also given on the assembly program, November 28.

Other plays with their characters presented in the Dramatic Club were: "The Return of Buck Gavin" with the following characters:

Buck Gavin—Joe Frank.
Mary Gavin—Myrtle Chitwood.
Sheriff—Sewell Cox.

"Where But in America" with the following characters:

Mr. Espenhayne—Jack Oldham.
Mrs. Espenhayne—Billie Bee Flesher.

Hilda, the maid—Fay Plaster.

"Some Other Birds are Taught to Fly," was presented by the club on the Christmas assembly program.

Teachers Plan Various Vacations For Summer

Vacation plans are being made by most of the teachers in Canyon Public Schools.

O. T. Barker, manual training instructor, is going to travel over a large part of the United States in his house trailer. He plans to attend school for six weeks of this summer at either George Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee, or at Texas A. and M. at College Station, Texas.

Coach C. C. Jones is going to attend Columbia University in New York this summer.

Miss Lois Goodrich, English teacher, is going to New York for a few days, and then to Life Girls' Camp in Georgetown, Connecticut, where she will direct the camp.

Miss Mattie Jordan, librarian and English teacher, plans to spend the summer in Tulsa.

Principal J. B. Pope, Jr., is going to teach Government and economics in W. T. S. T. C. this summer.

Miss Jewel Foster, Spanish instructor, is going to Texas University in Austin this summer where she will write her thesis for her Master of Arts degree.

Miss Grace Clark, mathematics instructor, Miss Irene Angel, teacher of public speaking, Aubrey Fox, teacher of science, and Superintendent I. B. Carruth have not made their plans for the summer.

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel, instructor in home economics, is going to attend W. T. S. T. C. this summer.

Mrs. Lee Foster, music teacher, is going to continue her music classes throughout most of the summer.

The following grade school teachers are going to attend school at W. T. S. T. C. this summer: Mrs. Ola Beeson, second grade teacher; Mrs. T. W. Collins, first grade teacher; Miss Annis Smith, fourth grade teacher; Mrs. Stella Murrell, second grade teacher; and Mrs. John Davis, arithmetic teacher.

Miss Gladys McClanahan, third grade teacher, and Miss Erin Gamble, reading teacher, are going to attend school, but have not decided where.

Principal Elva Fronabarger, Miss Ruth Greenfield, geography teacher, Miss Gwendolyn Black, third grade teacher, Mrs. Isabelle Cousins, second grade teacher, and Mrs. J. D. Barker, music teacher, plan to spend the summer in Canyon.

Miss Lenna Foster, English teacher in the grades, is going to accompany Miss Mattie M. Anderson to Columbia, Missouri, this summer, where Miss Anderson will take her Ph. D. degree.

Senior Class Gives Play Skit and Will In Assembly, Fri.

The Senior Class was in charge of the Assembly program Friday, May 10.

Three skits from the senior play, "Balmy Days," were given.

The senior will be pieced together and read by members of the Senior Class. Marye Ella Lowe, student president, called out numbers, and the senior having that number on his slip of paper read that part of the will.

A group of senior girls sang "Isle of Capri" and "All-American Girl." A senior quartet composed of Jackie Pitts, Kenneth Cayton, Wade Johnson, and Carl Prichard sang "Old Faithful," "Red River Valley," and "Home on the Range."

The characters were: Mrs. Ruggles—Ruth McCrerey. Cornelius Ruggles—Viola Dooley. Peoria Ruggles—Lucille Crowley. Harry Ruggles—Mary Ella Lowe. Clement Ruggles—Marie O'Donnald.

Sarah Maude Ruggles—Rowena Lockwood.

Peter Ruggles—Chloie Hall.

Study Make-Up

Before starting the stage make-up unit of work, the club bought a complete dramatic make-up box. The club's last unit of work has been stage arrangement in which the members studied stage settings of different short plays.

P. T. A. HOLDS '35 CARNIVAL

Money Derived Was Used For Expense Meet In Spring

The P. T. A. Carnival, one of the largest activities of the year, was held in the high school building at 7 o'clock, October 30, 1934.

The evening's program was opened with a short program presented by the grade school. After the grade school's opening program booths sponsored by the American Legion, Press Club, Home Economics Club, Science Department, Sophomore Class, Junior Class and the Trigonometry Class were opened to the public. The American Legion hamburger stand took in the most money; and received the prize that was offered to the booth taking in the most money.

The money derived from this carnival was used by the P. T. A. to defray expenses of the District P. T. A. Meet held in Canyon March 21, 22, 23.

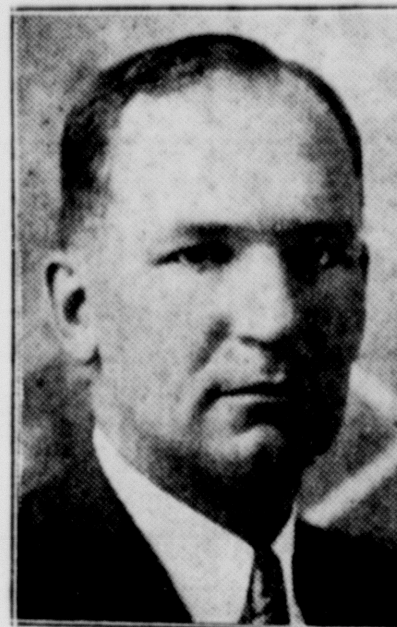

coronation of the Queen. Mary Jean Mickle, senior, was crowned Queen of the high school, and her escort was Curtis Ellison. The prince and princess were: Ruby Guthrie and Jack Neil Jennings, juniors; Carolyn Mayfield and John B. Pope III, sophomores; Natalie Flesher and Jackie Moore, freshman.

Houston Bright sang two songs; Lynette Cain danced before the Queen.

After the program Superintendent I. B. Carruth announced the winners of stunts, the Home Economics Club won second place and the Pep Squad won third.

Mildred Shuman will visit relatives in Wichita Falls this summer.

C. H. S. Principal

John B. Pope, principal of Canyon High School, will teach government and economics in West Texas State Teachers College this summer.

Mr. Pope came to Canyon from Sunnyside school last fall to act as principal in the high school here. Besides his regular duties of principal, keeping attendance records, issuing of make-up slips, keeping records of grades, he teaches three subjects; namely, civics, commercial law, and economics. Mr. Pope is co-sponsor of the sophomore class. He also acted as one of the sponsors of the Press Club on its trip to Austin.

Carl Prichard plans to continue his work with the Magnolia Petroleum Company until August, when he will take his vacation in California.

Joe Winstead will leave for New Mexico when school is out. He plans to visit in Kentucky in August.

Rowena Lockwood will visit with her sister in Flagstaff, Arizona, this summer.

Four Subjects Introduced In C H S This Year

Four new subjects were introduced in high school this year and Chemistry was reinstated, while Journalism was made a full credit course.

Typing, Public School Music, Commercial Art, and Junior Business Training are the new subjects.

Typing is under the supervision of Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel; Mrs. J. D. Barker teaches music; Coach Jones teaches Commercial Art, and O. T. Barker teaches the Junior Business Training Class. Typing is being given to seniors, while music is a freshman subject.

Chemistry, which was taught in high school year before last, and is being taught this year by Aubrey Fox, while Miss Lois Goodrich is teaching the Journalism Class.

P. T. A. IS HOST TO DISTRICT 8 CONVENTION

Began Study Club And Mother Singers During Last Year

The Parent-Teachers Association of Canyon Public Schools has just finished the most successful year of its organization, the climax of which was the reception of the District 8 Annual Convention here in March. During the last year, the P. T. A. organized the Mother Singers and a P. T. A. Study Club. Mrs. H. A. Brown was director of the Mother Singers and Mrs. D. A. Nicholas and Mrs. Joe Black directed the P. T. A. Study Club.

P. T. A. Study Club
The P. T. A. Study Club met twice a month to discuss sub-topics pertaining to the topic of the year, "Character Education." The discussions were held in round-table form.

Mother Singers
The Mother Singers also met twice a week for practice. They sang for the high school assembly and participated in the singing at the P. T. A. Convention in March.

Held Fifteen Meetings
Fifteen meetings of the P. T. A. were held during the last year. Among the speakers were: Miss Ruth Delzell, Amarillo librarian; A. M. Meyer and S. H. Condon, professors in W. T. S. T. C.; and Principal John B. Pope.

Sponsor Carnival
On October 30, the P. T. A. sponsored a carnival, which attracted one of the largest crowds the Canyon Public Schools have ever seen. "Oh, Professor," a musical hit, was presented November 27. Mothers sold hot soup, cookies, and crackers at lunch time on cold days to the students and teachers of the schools. They also sponsored a show in order to make money to enlarge the funds to be spent on the District No. 8 Convention held here March 21, 22, 23.

Convention Outstanding
The Convention proved to be one of the most outstanding ones ever held in this district. Sixteen high school girls served as pages in groups of four during the sessions. High school boys served as ushers at the evening sessions. The home economics girls helped serve at the banquet and luncheons.

Officers
The officers for the last year were: President, Mrs. Alfred Bellah; First Vice President, Mrs. Clarence Thompson; Second Vice President, Mrs. Ray Campbell; Secretary, Miss Gladys McClanahan; and Treasurer, Mrs. Roy Tate. The following are the chairmen of the standing committees of last year: Publicity, Mrs. Dewey Foster; Safety, Mrs. Ralph Harter; Finance and Budget, Mrs. Roscoe Davis; Membership, Mrs. Andy Walsh; Publication, Mrs. Bill Davis; Social, Mrs. Dick Ball; and Parliamentarian, Mrs. A. W. Sternberg. Mrs. Joe Black and Mrs. D. A. Nicholas were directors of the P. T. A. Study Group.

Serve as Class Mothers
Each room in school elected a mother from the P. T. A. to be its Room Mother. Those Room Mothers were: 1B, Mrs. Elsie Price; 1A,

Seventh Grade

SEVENTH GRADE HAS COLORFUL CLASS HISTORY

Fourteen Members of the Class Started In 1st Grade

There are 39 members in this year's seventh grade class. The boys have a slight edge over the girls with 24 members while the girls are only 15 in number.

Out of the 39 present members, 14 of them started out in the first grade in Canyon grade school. They are: Betty Jo Black, Ruth Nickelson, Hazel Sanders, Helen Tucker, Jack Price, Estelle Vanarsdale, Jimmie Fite, Harold Wall, Edwin Gidden, Eugene Newberry, Lewis Steen, Annie Sue Rogers, Jimmie Sol Slack, and Martha Carlee Wirt.

When the members of the class were in the fifth grade, Mrs. Isabelle Cousins was their sponsor. The next year C. C. Jones was sponsor; last year Mrs. John Davis was their sponsor.

Rena Beth Bellah was president during all three of their elementary years.

This year the seventh grade has been entertained several times. In November they had their first party which took place in the gymnasium of the grade school. This spring they enjoyed a Hobo party. The students went from house to house, and refreshments were served to them by various people. On April 1, they went on a picnic, and again last Monday the seventh grade went on a picnic.

Different System To Turn In Books Planned This Year

A new system is being used this year for checking in books at the close of school.

Heretofore all the students have turned in books at the book room. This caused a great deal of confusion.

The schedule for turning in books is as follows:
Seniors—Tuesday, 2:15, Science Room.
Juniors—Thursday, 2:30, Study Hall.
Sophomores—Thursday, 3:15, Study Hall.
Freshmen—Thursday, 4:00, Study Hall.

Aubrey Fox and Miss Jewel Foster have charge of the checking in of books. They urge that everyone have their books clear, backs glued on, and all covers off. They also urge that students bring money to pay fines on books as grades will not be issued to those having fines.

Codfish are used as money in Iceland. The vogue must have spread; many Americans have to buy on a COD basis.

Huey Long plans to make "Every Man a King." A king! In these days! No—he'll have to make us a dictator or nothing.

Local Scouts Take First Aid Honors In Annual Contest

Troop 30, Canyon Boy Scouts, won the First Aid Trophy at the annual camporee of the Amarillo Area Council.

Although the Canyon troop is composed largely of new material, the troop entered most of the contests which included nature study, first aid, cooking, fire by flint, and steel, fire by friction, camping, tent pitching, archery, drill, and athletics.

Twenty boys from the Canyon troop attended the meet, and several were from the Canyon Public School.

The troop left Friday afternoon, and spent the night in camp. Friday night was spent at a general campfire of all the troops, and a number of troops gave stunts for entertainment.

BILL REDFEARN KILLED
Bill Redfearn, an ex-student of Canyon High was killed in a car accident near Plainview last Sunday night.

Mr. Redfearn was a graduate of the class of 1928 and played football for the Eagles in 1926.

Gladys McBride is going on a sight-seeing tour through California, Washington, Oregon and Canada.

Jackie Pitts will visit in Oklahoma City, Floydada, and Lubbock this summer.

Edith Steen plans to spend part of the summer in Post.

Centipede Causes
Panic and Horror
In Home Ec Room

A wild and untamable creature is loose in Canyon High School! The whole feminine citizenship shrieks with horror at the slightest touch and even the football heroes feel nervously behind their ears. To lessen the suspense, a centipede varying in inches (according to report) from three to forty) is seeking its prey among the helpless faculty and students.

The 11 o'clock home economics class was sitting calm and happy as Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel read out the review questions in a quiet monotone. The flies on the outside of the screen buzzed lazily and the quiet murmur of the industrious students hummed contentedly through the building.

Suddenly the teacher's eyes widened into a horrified stare; with a gasp of terror, she jumped to her feet, and dashed without a word for the other side of the room. A startled hush of awe and wonder followed and then suddenly another member of the group was afflicted. Beulah Brasuel gave one sobbing sigh and ran with wild eyes after her sister. Another pause and yet another girl found it impossible to stay seated and fled in silent horror and with only a gurgling sound for explanation.

Stark fear clutched at the fair hearts of twenty girls; they looked to the right and saw nothing, that was terrible; they looked to the left and still no horrible, woman-eating orge appeared, that was unbearable!

Panic reigned! A stampede followed! No body knew why, but everybody ran!

In the safety of the fold (otherwise called the other side of the room) Miss Brasuel, Beulah, and Jean Slack hysterically accounted for the class-room fluctuation. A centipede, oh, it must have been a mile long, had advanced at a furious pace from under the radiator, had charged directly under the chair of the unwitting Beulah Brasuel and continued steadily under the battery of several pairs of horror-stricken eyes on toward Miss Brasuel, who retreated hastily; then, Beulah retreated, and finally the entire class retreated in

Speakers, Foreign Affairs,
Principal Assembly Themes

The various assemblies this year have been unusually interesting. They were as follows:

Sept. 20—The football squad, the Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, of the Methodist Church, and the Rev. Chas. L. Dickey, of the Presbyterian Church, furnished the assembly program.

Oct. 7—The Student Council had charge of the assembly program. Fire prevention was discussed by Marye Ella Lowe.

Oct. 11—Separate assembly meetings for boys and girls.

American Legion Program
Nov. 9—The American Legion gave a special Armistice program in the high school auditorium.

Nov. 2—The ex-student assembly, Friday, November 2, was presented by four ex-students. Alice King Wood, Lee Christine Cousins, Mary Beth Campbell, and Bob Black.

Spaniard Gives Program
Nov. 13—Senor Roberto de la Rosa, a student of the National Medical University of Mexico City, Mexico, gave a varied program of songs and short talks in assembly.

His program was sponsored by the Spanish Department.

November 28—A short play, "All On a Summer's Day" was presented by members of the Dramatic Club in assembly Wednesday. Assembly was in charge of the Student Council.

Dec. 6—Separate assembly meetings for boys and girls.

Dec. 20—Christmas program was given by O. T. Barker and Miss Irene Angel.

Scotch Give Program

Jan. 17—The Scotch Society of Amarillo presented a program in assembly.

Jan. 10—Examination week—no assembly.

Jan. 24—A short assembly program was held Thursday afternoon to urge more pupils to attend basketball games.

Feb. 17—Mid Term Exams.

Feb. 14—Mrs. Lee Foster, accompanied by Gladys McBride and Mary May Harrison, gave a program of popular piano selections in assembly.

March 7—The Senior English

Barker's House Trailer is Nearing Completion

The house trailer constructed in part by manual training students is nearing completion and will probably be tried out next Monday.

The frame and cabinet work was made by members of the manual training class during the last seven weeks.

Since the trailer has been moved out of the manual training shop, O. T. Barker, manual training instructor, and Edd Brooks have almost finished covering the trailer with pressed wood. They have also plated the conglomium on the floor.

The trailer will contain storage space for canned goods in the back under a raised portion of the floor where the bed will be placed.

Toward the front there is a chest of drawers, a clothes closet over which is a hat compartment. More storage space is under a built-in sink which is in the front of the trailer. There is an ice box, two drawers for linens, and a water reservoir.

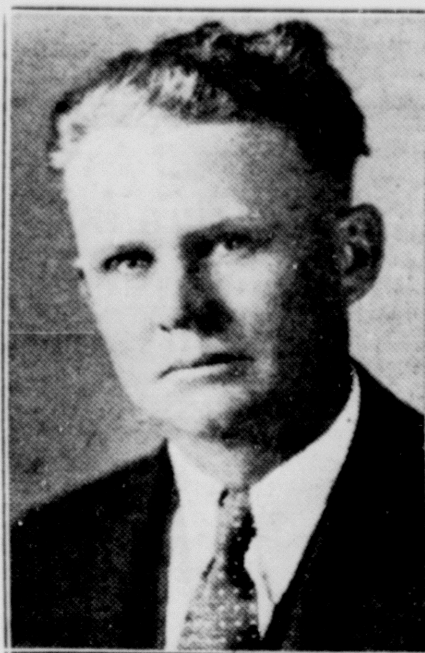

The furnishings will consist of a folding bed, and a radio. The trailer will be wired for either an A. C. current or a current from the car battery.

May 5—A special assembly was held Monday afternoon for the purpose of explaining the new system of curriculum revision to be used next year.

May 9—Senior Class program.

May 16—Exam week—no assembly.

JUNIOR CLASS OUTSTANDING IN '35 TERM

Varied Entertainments and Activities Make Interesting Year

The Junior Class of this year started by selecting Jack Taylor president, Wandell Johnson, vice-president, and Wesley Cox, secretary-treasurer.

This class has been one of the most outstanding classes of the school year, and has also been active in social affairs and many other projects that have been of benefit to the students as a whole.

Sewel and Wesley Cox first entertained the class with a banquet at their country home. Since then the class has had a Halloween party in the school gymnasium, a picnic at Palo Duro Park sponsored by Miss Lois Goodrich, a box supper in the school gymnasium, a party at the home of Billie Bee Flesher and another at the home of Lavena Watkins.

The Junior Class won a prize of $2.50 as a reward for selling the most tickets to the picture show which was sponsored by the Senior Class.

In April, the class sponsored the construction of croquet courts on the school grounds. The junior boys did the work as a class project while the school bought two croquet sets.

Jack Taylor and Wesley Cox were the members of the class who were on the basketball team. Wandell Johnson, Leslie Lisle, and Wesley Cox were the juniors to letter on the football team. Mary Ella Davis was the only junior girl to letter on the Eaglette's team.

Mary Ella and Sewel have been assistants in the principal's office this year.

Wesley Cox, now a junior, is captain-elect of the 1935 football team.

The Junior Class girls have been outstanding in indoor baseball and won the girls' intramural baseball tournament. Their basketball team went to the finals in the girls' intramural basketball tournament, losing to the sophomores by one point.

For the junior candidates for the king and queen, the members of the class selected Ruby Guthrie,

Fourteen Students Make Honor Roll Consistently

Mary May Harrison has made all A's, 20, this year, taking four subjects. She is the only student who has made all A's, but Marjorie Wilkinson, who has taken five subjects this year deserves special mention for making 21 A's and 4 B's.

Fourteen students have been on the honor roll every time this year:

	A's	B's
Mary May Harrison	20	0
Sarah Thompson	15	5
Martha Jo Newlin	15	5
Jewel Chambers	18	5

The juniors entertained the seniors with a banquet, May 11, at the Legion Hall.

FROSH HAVE TOUGH TIME

Joe Harry Roberts Is President Of
'35 Frosh

School days, school days. Dear old golden-rule days. Baseball and croquet and marbles too. Math and English we must go through. Some of the problems are hard to work. The "Fish" think their lessons they will shirk. And the days that are filled with work and fun. Are gone before they are begun.

"Hall, hall, the gang's all here!" That's the way the freshmen felt when they gathered for their first class meeting. Many new faces mingled with the old, and new and old alike were elated to think they were truly members of Canyon High School.

Elect Officers

After "fiery" campaign speeches made by future men and women "of note," the class elected Joe Harry Roberts, president; Natalie Flesher, vice-president; and Mary Horn, secretary, with Aubrey Fox and Fannie Sue Brasuel as sponsors. Let me add that when I peeked in the room later, it looked as if a cyclone had struck it. However it was just the results of the excitement that had prevailed during the election.

Choose Representatives

At the second class meeting, Polly Little and Fairy Hill were elected to represent the class in the Student Council.

By the way, the spice of the third meeting was Annie May Spencer's nomination of Polly Little for room mother. This remark caused much merriment, but finally the class "got down to business" and elected Mrs. A. W. Sternberg.

Have Banquet

October 4, the freshmen were given a banquet by their parents so that the different members of the class could become better acquainted with the parents. The Second Year Home Economics girls served a good meal which was followed by a program. Everyone seemed to have a "jolly good time."

Christmas Party Given

Mrs. Sternberg gave the class a Christmas party at her home in December. Some took gifts and put them around the gaily lighted Christmas tree. When all had arrived, the packages were distributed and opened. Various games were played after which refreshments were served. A short time later found the crowd disbanded, having had a very pleasant evening.

April Fool Picnic
The weeks flew by, and the next get-together was on April Fool's

Sophs Have Most Successful Year of the Class History

The Sophomore Class this year met with the greatest success in its history.

Both the sophomore boys and girls were fortunate in winning the intramural basketball contests this year. There were three sophomore boys who lettered in football. These were Lavert Avert, Ralph Rusk, and Willard Childers. Thomas Harris, a sophomore, lettered in basketball. The sophomore boys were also active this year in track and other sports.

Also three sophomore girls, Evelyn Cluck, Mary Collins, and Jean Slack, lettered in basketball.

The sophomores have had three representatives in the band: Marjorie Wilkinson, J. C. Bellah, and Raymond Bible.

The sophomore representatives for king and queen were John B. Pope III, and Carolyn Mayfield. The sophomores won second in the queen race.

The Sophomore Class has been quite active this year in having parties and helping to make school better. In the first semester they had a masquerade party. Later they spent a day picnicking in the Palo Duro Canyons.

The officers of the Sophomore Class are: Willard Childers, president; Ralph Rusk, vice-president; Marielle Oldham, secretary and treasurer; Kate Eileen Donnell and Forrest Hill, representatives to Student Council. During the first semester I. B. Carruth and Mattie Jordan were the sponsors; but the last half John B. Pope took Mr. Carruth's place. Mrs. Berl E. Mayfield was chosen the sophomore room mother.

Day at a picnic. Mr. Fox and the other sponsors rode to Bourn's while the students walked. When the boys and girls arrived they couldn't find Mr. Fox—but he didn't care, he had all the "cats."

King and Queen

April 4, the freshmen elected Natalie Flesher and Jack Moore as their candidates for king and queen.

A new day—its new opportunities—its new obligations—are presented to the graduates of today. Their tomorrow will be filled with problems which are confronting their elders of today.

Every citizen is proud of the accomplishments of the school system—the boys and girls who have completed its courses, and are today developing the great Panhandle of Texas.

This company takes great pride in the part which it has played in the development of the frontier of West Texas and brought comfort and convenience to the thousands of homes which we are serving in this area.

We have stood for our school system; for the homes of this section; for improving our business and social institutions; for better towns and cities; and view with great pride the expanding, efficient system of electric service which reaches the 46 towns which we serve.

Our accomplishments of the past are a source of great satisfaction to us. Fully cognizant of our responsibilities in the program of the future progress, this company pledges itself to an intensified service to the communities it is privileged to serve.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

I wish to congratulate the Senior Class of Canyon High School and the Press Club for this splendid edition of the school paper. I am sure that it will be a source of pleasure from which the seniors can draw many happy memories of their last year in high school. The tangible results of this enterprise are meager compared to the intangible results that you have achieved in this and many other similar activities. While working together you have shown a wonderful spirit of co-operation, loyalty, unselfishness and the ability to do hard work. These and other similar attitudes constitute the most important part of your training. As you leave your high school days and start building the edifice of your future it is our sincere wish that you will continue to co-operate with your fellow man, to serve others with a spirit of unselfishness and to work unceasingly to reach the goals that you have before you.

The time has come when you must leave the protection and leadership of your school days, and go out into a competitive world that asks no quarter and gives none. You will meet with disappointments and reverses. Do not let these cause you to falter, but draw deep from the sterling virtues that you have developed and with the poet, say "It matters not how straight the gate, how charged with punishments the scroll; I am the master of my fate, I am the captain of my soul."

With such a spirit you cannot fail. I wish now to ask you, "How have you planned your future? Have you planned to further your training and prepare for life in a college? in a trade school? or by serving an apprenticeship in some business or industry?" I would like to urge that all of you use your high school training only as a stepping stone to something higher and more useful. The new industrial and power age in which we find ourselves at the present time makes it imperative that the youth of our land become more highly skilled in the arts and sciences of life. The machine and power age has thrown more and more men out of employment and is consequently causing competition for the remaining jobs and positions to be keener and keener. The opportunities of the frontier days have passed when an untrained man could mass a fortune or comfortable living by acquiring cheap land or a monopoly in some business in a small town or in a sparsely settled region. The successful man of tomorrow must be able to perform successfully some specialized task in a highly socialized society. Hence it behooves each one of you to acquire further training as rapidly as possible.

TRIBUTE TO BOARD OF CANYON HIGH SCHOOL

Roses to the school board. The teachers have always been paid and the school has been able to run on a cash basis through this trying year of sand storms. These men don't get any pay for their services, but they do get criticisms.

Let's not give them rocks, but praise them for their faithful services, throughout the year.

WHY GO AWAY TO COLLEGE?

Why go away to college—? Here, right here in our own plains, our own community, in our own city, is one of the most outstanding schools for a complete education that can be found in the southwest's teachers colleges. Well equipped with all modern facilities for athletic training, and one of the best staffs of teachers in the State.

Do not be discouraged because you cannot attend school elsewhere and think you do not wish to go into higher learning because of the present economic condition, because you can save enough by going to school in your own city, than you would spend by just loafing around and not receiving any education in any form.

Think about it.

Canned Beauty

or

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Dame
Primping, primping 'all the day—
Beauty flares and fades away!
Yet you nurse that fondest hope
That some untied facial dope,
Sold in bottle, box, or can,
Spread on thick will get the man!
Crimson lips and coral nails—
Oh, you misinformed females,
Do you think that charm can lie
In your artificial dye?
Fashion wields a magic wand—
Once a brunette—now a blonde!

Calendar Notes
Reveal Modern
Style of Lingo

From the calendars of the Principal's and Superintendent's offices a broken but eventful tale is found. The tale begins with January 1935 because the pages prior were torn out.

On January 2 is written, "Mary Collins' birthday; please send her a present." January 3 is written over with "Tac. study club, Shulkey." January 10 is "Carolyn's Birthday," and January 11 was "Vega here." On January 12, "Happy, here," and on the 14, "Rubye Foster, phone 418." "P. T. A." was January 18 and someone was to "order B. T. G." on the 22. January 31 said "Hereford debate here."

February 1 was "Hereford," and the second was "Open." On February 5 was the following notation, "Ch. No. of M-U-styln on R. Bible." (Greek joke). "Tulia" was on 9, and on 12, "Assign parts in I. League Work." February 14, and honest soul remembered to "Pay lumber bill," and on 15, "Pay 45c to B. L. C." On February 27, the "Stenos at 3:36," was written, which means simply that the stenographers arrived at 3:36 o'clock.

And then came the dawning, of March 20, when "Fox and Bl take G. place in aft." "Mary's Birthday," was on 23, and the "Alaska Purchase" March 30.

A dirty joke and some terrible personal scandal was written on April 1. (April fool! Ha, ha!) April 17, was "Kate's Birthday," and on 18 was "P. T. A. afternoon."

On May 6, Pee Wee learned to spell her name on the back of the calendar. May 15 was "A. A. U. W."; March 16, "Recital," the 17, "Grade School Graduation," 18, "Sr. Recital," 19, "Bac. Sermon," 20, "Commencement," and so on, into the distant future the open

Seniors Belongings
Respectively Willed

Winnie Dee Hicks leaves her ability as a boss to Edgar Hutton. Jack Pitts leaves his hamburger stomach to Miss Grace Clark.

Chris Wooten leaves his driving ability to Wendell Johnson for use after dark.

Freida Lowrie wills her flaming wig and romances to Lavena Watkins.

Lorene Bessire leaves her anti-fat to Lucy May Furlow.

Robert Orton and Skeeter Wirt leave the Roseland Ball Room to Gertrude Brandt.

Yvonne Thomas donates the objects of her affections to anybody that will take them.

Thelma Bryant leaves her curves to Anna Kathryn Overton.

David Phillips gets Rubye Foster's influence with the governor. Hampton Lisle leaves all his brotherly love to Leslie.

Frances Gill leaves her double-dare-me, and the-sky's-the-limit moods to Erwin Meyer.

Cecil O'Donald gives the fascinating "Damaged Look" that all the feds are mad about to J. V. Moore.

Lorna Cone and Kenneth Cayton will their ability to tell a WHACK as conspicuous as Pike's Peak without cracking a smile, to Hal Gamble.

Edward Lee Brooks and Armeta Kirkpatrick leave their ability to "melt with the first half of a look and slay with the last half" to Ruby Guthrie and Jack Neil Jennings.

To Sarah Bonnie Bourn, Bill Cone affectionately wills his famous red-in-the-face and please-leave-me-alone looks.

Estill (Speck) Furlow hereby wills his art on the French harp and his freckles to Sam Archer.

Edith Steen graciously leaves her tapping ability to O. D. Breitling.

Mary Jean Mickle leaves her "sex appeal" to Wilma Cofer.

Jack Oldham gives his superiority complex to Sewel Cox.

James Hill wills Jack Taylor his "I ain't got no use for women" line.

Bud Myers leaves to David Phillips, Dell and Elizabeth Sue.

Ruth McCreary, Rowena Lockwood, and Chloe Hail donate their ability to get along together to Coach Jones and the lady he takes to church of a Sunday. (They'll need it).

Jewel Chambers leaves her undying affection to one whom it may concern.

Margaret Nicholas leaves her "Gift of Gab" to Billie B. Flesher. Gladys McBride leaves her complexion and kinky hair to Overton Donnell.

Kenneth Black leaves his influence with certain Sophomores to Joe Frank.

Mary May Harrison leaves Pat Cox to the Buzzards.

Curtis Ellison leaves his football genius to Fred Hart.

Joe Winstead leaves his poetry and drug store fiction to Mary Ella Davis.

Wilma Price leaves her flirtatious eyes to Joe Morris.

Mary Ella Lowe and Wade Johnson leave their love to Mr. Pope.

Ronald Black, Helen E. Bowman, and Margaret Croson leave all the curses of a senior's life to Mr. Carruth.

O. M. Solomon leaves his way with the women to Mr. Fox.

Carl Prichard leaves his poetical ability to all future English classes. Lawrence Fulton leaves none of his height nor his flippancy to anyone.

To Rest Or Not To

A vacation, according to the dictionary, is a change in occupation and a time of rest.

If one is to have a vacation, why not use it profitably? This does not mean to sleep all of the time. Most young people have some time that does not need to be devoted to exercise and sleep.

A change, whether in the form of recreation or work, is priceless if used to the best advantage. If a vacation is a rest from study, perhaps a pleasure trip will be most restful. If it is a rest from home life, school work might be desired. But whatever the change, it should be something that rests the tired mind or the fatigued body.

Those who have studied hard this year need a rest. The girls and boys who will read for a purpose, and observe trees, flowers, and animals, instead of passing nature up with blind eyes and dull ears will have spent their vacation months profitably.

calendar leads so that ye lads and lassies may make your footprints in the sands of time.

Robert Orton, Hettie Lou Bagley, Oressa Hastings, Mary Bell Mitchell, Mary Orton, and S. B. Orton will leave after school is out for a tour of the Western States. They plan to be gone about two months.

Seniors Futures Foretold by Poet

For Carl Prichard there's college ahead
And after that a job.
A wife, some children—happiness
And many friends not soon forgot.

Estill Furlow, better known as Speck
In the future will carry that name
Behind the curtains on the stage
And finally to fame.

Roland Black though now shining shoes
Learns the value of the dime.
He sees his chance—he cannot lose;
He'll be a business man sometime.

Lorene Bessire a novelist great
Never a husband will be her fate.

A great executive aspire as she may
The brown-eyed girl called Mary May;
To a high position she may climb,
But a man in her life will change her mind.

The '35 class is blessed with two—
Orton and Oldham among the few
To turn to law as a life's ambition
And carry out their family traditions.

Jewel Chambers in the future will leap
Into a home with a family to keep;
As a model mother her home she'll run,
No greater thing could be said of one.

Yvonne Thomas of the men beware,
Many a man has fallen for blonde hair.

But one whose name shall be widely known
Is our own little girl—Lorna Cone.
She knew from the first what she wanted to be
And in the future a great designer is she.

Margaret Croson will surprise us all
With her timid blush and the way she'd stall,
We'd never guessed that she'd take her part
In the gaily lighted field of dramatic art.

Frances Gill a clerk in a store,
She'll know how to sell—and what is more,
Her own graces she will not hide,
But with her manager to the altar she'll ride.

Using science and lots of sense
A farmer now—a farmer still
A quiet success—and happiness—
That's the future of James Hill.

Curtis will continue strong and firm
The life of a college athlete.
Then into football professionally
And back again to teach.

Hampton Lisle—the practical man
Will rule his home with a well-ordered plan
A journalist first, but he soon learns
As a publisher he can double his earnings.

Over the radio each afternoon
You'll be able to listen now very soon,
To such music as will fill you with pride,
To know that it is given by Gladys McBride.

Margaret Nicholas, the energetic one,
Will continue her pace till her race is run
In personnel work in an office she
In spinsterhood she'll live to be.

There must be some one left to teach
Lest our children a position could never reach
So up to the desk of the young teacher so cute
The children will go to Miss Florence Root.

To college to take dancing and enjoy her friends
To gain in knowledge and cultural ends,
For this purpose will go Edith Steen
But some day Hampton will win her esteem.

It is hard for even a gypsy to say
What will become of "Sol-ly" some day,
But if with a gypsy heart he answers the call,
I see him some day in professional ball.

One in our midst will marry twice;
That is the future of Wilma Price.
But after a gay life in such a whirl,
She'll enjoy being just a telephone girl.

Irene Thompson will throw her heart away
On many a passing lad so gay,
Till along will come one, who will change her life,
And she'll smile to think she'll be his wife.

Taurus Rules
Fifteen Studes

The Fifteen Canyon High School students which were born in May, are ruled by Taurus, the Bull.

Erwin Meyer and Cecil O'Donald, both born on May 3, are both of a slow, steady temperament and inclined to be rather stubborn. They should have average success in business.

Lula Marie Ellison, born May 6, has the blessing of possessing the strong point or factor of courage. May 8, is Winnie Dee Hicks' birthday. Her most fortunate day is Friday, her fortunate metal copper, and her lucky colors are turquoise and pink.

Jack Oldham, born May 10, will be very successful in the business world if he overcomes his tendency toward a high, irritable nature.

Prenties McKee should choose a wife, who will push him forward in the business world. He was born May 11.

May 12 is the birthday of both Glenn Campbell and Wilfred Kenon. These boys will prosper thru their generosity in a charitable way.

Marielle Oldham, born May 7, should never invest in real estate, and she should never marry more than once.

Jean Slack, whose birthday is May 20, has a love for the arts which will lead to her success in a public work.

Sarah Bourn, born May 21, should choose her mate carefully. She is slow to anger, but when she becomes fully aroused, her temper is great.

May 22 is the birthday of Willard Childers. Willard's children will be inclined to be hysterical when teething. His married life will be happy; his business world work successful.

Helen Johnson was born May 24. Helen will be a good housewife because of her understanding, sympathy, and kind-heartedness. Mary Horn, born May 29, will find her fortunate day to be Wednesday, her lucky metal, quicksilver, and her lucky colors, dove, azure, and spotted mixtures.

May 30 is Obara Burgan's birthday. Obara will have no success in the business world. She will be more successful in a home.

Robert Black Is President of Exes

Mrs. Harry Wood, ex-student president in '34, has glibly given up her position to Robert Black, a graduate of '33.

Robert, who was vice-president last year, played football for four years. He lettered as quarterback in his senior year. He was also quite active in the speech department. He debated in his senior year, and played a role in the senior play.

Miss Annis Smith, fourth grade teacher, was secretary-treasurer of the exes. Miss Smith is a graduate of the year of '26. She was a star forward and she now coaches girls' basketball in high school.

Things wouldn't be so bad if the pure were always with us.

He'll charge over the front, if his credit is good
At the very first bugle call.
"The Huns are tame, cause Bud Myers is my name
And the whole world before me will fall."

"Just Winnie Dee and me—and baby makes three"
Some lucky man will sing with glee.
Happiness will always reign in the home
And neither man nor wife will care to roam.

And there's queenly Mary Jean Mickle
Who has been accused of being fickle
A lady beautiful and very genteel
Her love for her husband will probably be real.

In Lawrence Fulton another Aubrey Fox was born
Tall, ungainly, and looking forlorn
But a wizard in science and a friend to all Faithful to his work no matter how small.

Kenneth Black sat around
Until he knew men like a hound.
Then taking advantage of all he'd learned
By selling insurance a fine living he earned.

Kenneth Cayton grew so fast
In dairy work in this year just past,
That he made up his mind—it was meant for him
To turn to dairying with vigor and vim.

A surprise in store—a teacher will become;
Physical education she will teach,
In all its phases she'll be a peach.

In Mary Ella Lowe another Phebe K. Warner I see Speaking in public for her community;
To the House of Representatives she might rise,
But love for a man makes her think it unwise.

"A violet by a mossy stone
Half hidden from the view"
Frieda—a poet will become,
Unusual and new.

Our Editor Bill—an editor still
As long as he can see,
In college, in life, and we look
And wonder if not through eternity.

Thelma Bryant and her friend Helen Bowman
Big parts in life they'll play;
Neighbors they'll be—each married true
Rearing children in the big way.

The author of Dorothy Dix
Can't live always, you know,
Rubye Foster will take her place
And thus through life she'll go.

Jackie Pitts, in a hotel will work,
He'll work in the drug, and sodas will jerk.
He'll play in the orchestra, in the dining room swanky
With a long-tailed coat and a gay colored hanky.

Chris Wooten will be a sight to see
On the lighted stage in pretending glee.
He'll be a flop, I'm sorry to say,
But a stage manager swell, he'll be some day.

Chloe Hail to Europe will sail
To study for library work;
She'll have her fun, when her victory's won
Her duties, she'll never shirk.

Cecil and Rowena will be a match
Nothing on earth will redeem them.
How did it start? They wouldn't part
Because of some kisses between them.

Wade Johnson will change,
And his all in all
Will be on the sport page
In track and football.

Ruth McCreary will live on her dairy,
But her mind will travel wide;
She'll study art in the best of schools,
In her art will be her pride.

Lorenzo Wirt and his saxophone
Will travel the road together;
In cities wide, down the country-side,
In the rain or stormy weather.

And now I see a pleasant sight,
A picture of dreams come true;
A little home in the distant west,
Armeta and Ed and their children too.

ZITA BREEZES

By Sewel Cox

When the sun shines in the morning,
And the wind's right from the west,
Perhaps before the day is done,
Your patience is put to test.

The wind continues rising;
The sun, its getting dull.
The prairie dog hunts for shelter,
Tortoises seal their hull.

Until it's fifty miles,
The new comer then will ask you,
Sir, has it been this way before?

The tin cans then are rolling;
Tumble weeds pass you by;
And if you stick your head out—
The dirt will fill your eye.

The clouds of dirt grow thicker;
The sun it gives no light.
At 12 o'clock at midday,
It seems almost like night.

And then the storm continues,
Until almost four or five.
And you are made to thank your Father,

That you are still alive.

And when the storm is over,
And the sun shines on the earth,
You are thankful that the Panhandle

Is the grand place of your birth.
The traveler of a day gone by Who said he rode so fast he could not see the telegraph poles has a son who rides so fast he tears them down.

All the self made men are not boasting about it.

Howdy, Everybody—

You know—I'm dog-goned if I don't hate to see this of school year pass out. Why, it only seems like it has just started. But of course I guess some of you students feel different about it.

Say, I guess Mr. Carruth's plenty proud he's goin' to Europe. And that ain't all too. Seems like everybody's leavin'. Even Pee Wee says she's goin' to New York. My but I wish Israfel was spry as he usta be. But he's kinda old—and can't take it for very far—so I guess we'll go out to the Palo Duro Park an' camp for a few days.

Mickey seems to be goin' into business of her own. She's got a tappin' class to teach this summer. I guess next thing she'll be doin' is goin' down to Old Mexico and learnin' that "Rumba" so's she can teach it. Me fer one is wishin' you good luck, Mickey. If I thought Miriah wouldn't find it out I don't know but what I'd take dancin' from you myself.

I wonder whose little gold basketball George Mayfield is sportin' around (his neck).

I was so proud in assembly to hear those boys sing. Why I didn't know they was such nightingales as Wade Johnson an' Kenneth Cayton an' Jackie Pitts an' Carl Prichard. Why, I'd even profess them to be Bing Crosby's some of these days.

Say, listen. That Senior Play was plenty cagey—if you ask me. Lorene Bessire and Bill Cone were a scream—and that Irene Thompson was funny as everything. In fact the whole outfit was just O. K. And I can't forget Kenneth Black and Margaret Nicholas.

In the senior class will, Mary May Harrison willed Wesley Cox to the buzzards. Poor Pat! Thelma Bryant willed her curves to Sis Overton. I don't imagine she has much use for them though. Jackie Pitts willed his hamburger stummick to Miss Clark. Don't laugh!

It has just got public that Jackie Pitts and Martha Jo Newlin are sharing their love together. Why even Jackie informed Pee Wee that Martha Jo was about twice as good looking as she is—and furthermore a much keener kid. I guess they took o' Pee Wee down a notch or two.

It seems that Lavert Avent has a case of the heart beats, too. He has been receiving letters from some Mildred Somebody—she didn't sign her last name—but she did put "lots of love to you"—so, I guess that was about enough.

Bill Cone even admits that he has a case of nutmeg (not the kind you use for spice). He even said the reason his mind is so clean is because he changes it so often.

Tubba Lisle received a check for $4.35. When Mary May asked him what he was gonna do with it, he said, "Oh, Honey, I'm gonna marry you." But Irene objected in spite of the fact that she and Jack Taylor are still romantic.

Well, so long, old pals, I'm a headin' for the spring roundup.

I just heard some of the seniors talking and they said they believed the junior-senior gypsy banquet was about the best they had ever been to. Those juniors and Miss Goodrich (she's their sponsor) must have really done some work on it. Cactus Cal.

"Contrary Mary's"
And "Nible Jack's"
—We've Got 'Em

"Mary, Mary, quite contrary—" Do you realize that there are nearly twice as many "contrary Mary's" in C. H. S. as there are "nimble Jack's"?

It seems that the old traditional names of Mary and John (Mary and Jack in C. H. S.) will be in existence for some time yet. At least that should remain since 18 of the 176 students enrolled in C. H. S. are Marys and Jacks.

They are Mary Jo Avent, Mary Horn, Mary Charlotte Word, Mary Collins, Mary Ellen Hurst, Marielle Oldham, Mary Catherine Wirt, Mary Ella Davis, Mary May Harrison, Mary Ella Lowe, and Mary Jean Mickle.

And then there is Jack Taylor, Jack Jennings, Jack Inman, Jack Middleton, Jack Oldham, Jack Pitts, and Jack Moore.

Since three Marys and two Jacks are being graduated, and no Mary and only one Jack will enter from grade school next year, the Jacks will nearly catch up with the Mary

Carruth To Study Curriculum In Europe During Vacation

Superintendent I. B. Carruth will be one of the 25 men from the United States who will go to Europe this summer to study educational, social, and economic conditions in the schools and universities of Russia, Germany, England, and France.

Bruener Is Director

The trip is to be under the personal direction, and supervision of Dr. H. B. Bruener, noted educator of Columbia University of New York City. Two other men from the Panhandle will also accompany the party to Europe. R. B. Fisher, superintendent at Pampa Public Schools, and B. C. Shulkey, superintendent of the Borger Public Schools.

To Last Eight Weeks

The entire trip has been planned, and will continue over a period of eight weeks. The main purpose of the tour is to form a better background, for revision of the curriculum in Texas, and also to obtain a broad background of European social and economic problems.

To Meet Educators

The officials in charge of the trip have arranged for noted foreign state and educational leaders to meet personally the members of the tour. In some of the larger cities in various nations they will visit. An extensive study will be made of the pitiable slum districts, and the conditions which exist there, contrasted with our own. The group will sail from New York June 29, and will leave Great Britain to return home August 27.

Juniors Decorate And Act as Ushers for Commencement

Members of the Junior Class will gather flowers for both commencement exercises Sunday and Monday nights, and will usher at both occasions.

Two committees were appointed to gather the flowers and ribbon off the seats where the seniors will sit; one committee for the Commencement Sermon Sunday night at the Methodist Church and the other for the Commencement Exercises Monday night at the high school auditorium.

Jack Taylor and Wesley Cox will lead the Senior Class to their seats Sunday night.

The seniors will be led in Monday night by Mary Ella Davis and Sewel Cox. Other ushers will be Billie Bee Flesher, Wandell Johnson, Jack Neil Jennings, Ruby Guthrie, Anna Kathryn Overton, Leslie Lisle, Hal Gamble, and Sarah Bonnie Bourn.

First Grade Holds Class Room Party Last Wednesday

Last Wednesday afternoon, 1B, under the supervision of Mrs. R. E. Ball, who is substituting in the absence of Miss Frances Singleton, had a party in the class room. Refreshments were served after the following program:

Fairy Poems:
Marjorie Carpenter—Fairies in the Air.

Elva Jean Anderson—Little Elf Man.

Travis Montgomery—Once I Saw a Fairy.

Ruth Price—I Cannot see Fairies.

Weldon Lindsey—Have You.

Song: I wish I were a Fairy.

Gold Basketballs Awarded to Seven Eaglette Cagers

Seven girls received gold basketballs Monday for lettering in basketball this year.

The basketballs are yellow gold with C. H. S. and '35 engraved in purple. On the opposite side from this engraving the initial of the player is engraved.

For the last three years basketballs have been given to the girls. Four years ago a large letter C was given to be placed on a sweater if the girls wanted to buy one.

Those receiving awards are: guards, Mary Collins, Evelyn Chuck, Thelma Bryant; forwards, Mickey Schmitz, Arnetta Kirkpatrick, Mary Ella Davis, and Jean Slack.

Club Organized In Interest Of C.H.S. Athletics

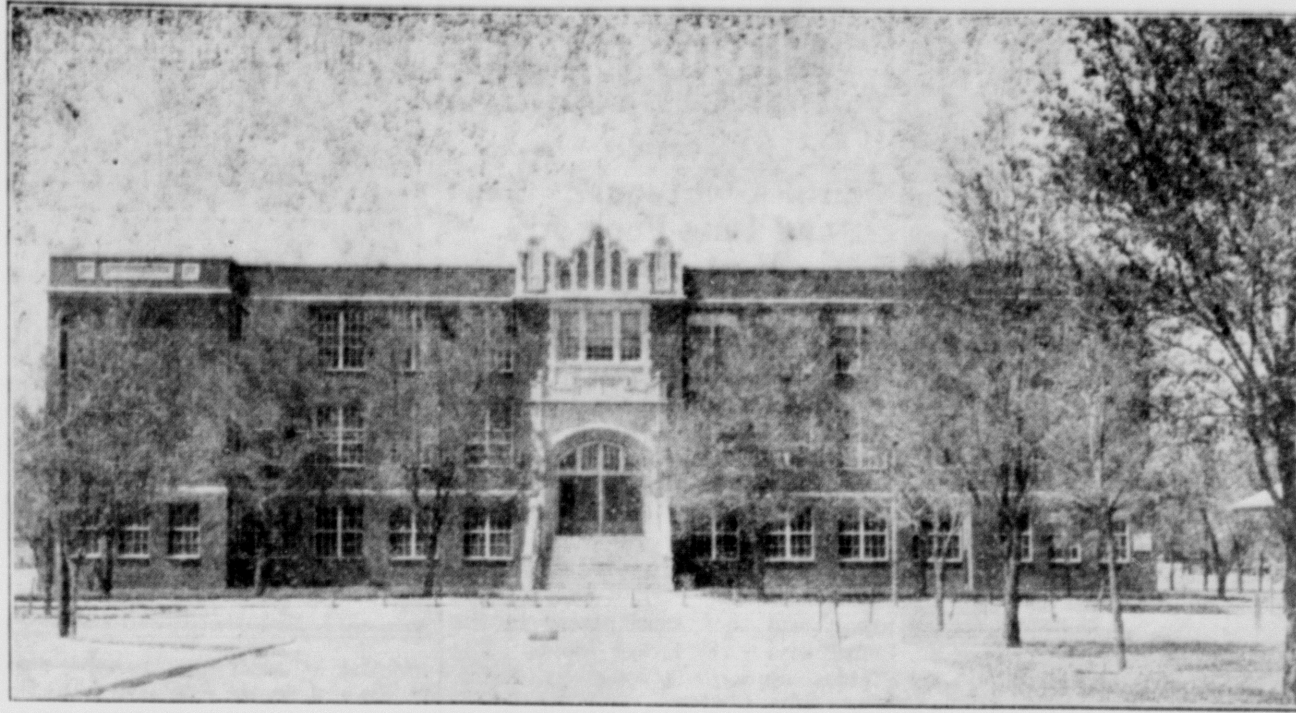

The Ex-Eagle Club was formed this year under the direction of Superintendent Carruth, and Coach Cleveland Jones for the purpose of stimulating interest in high school athletics and social interests so the boys can get together and be among boys not in school and among the town people.

All boys who have lettered in any athletic endeavor are eligible for membership in this organization. At present there are 30 members who attend meetings, planned to be held every other Monday night, and the various social affairs of the organization.

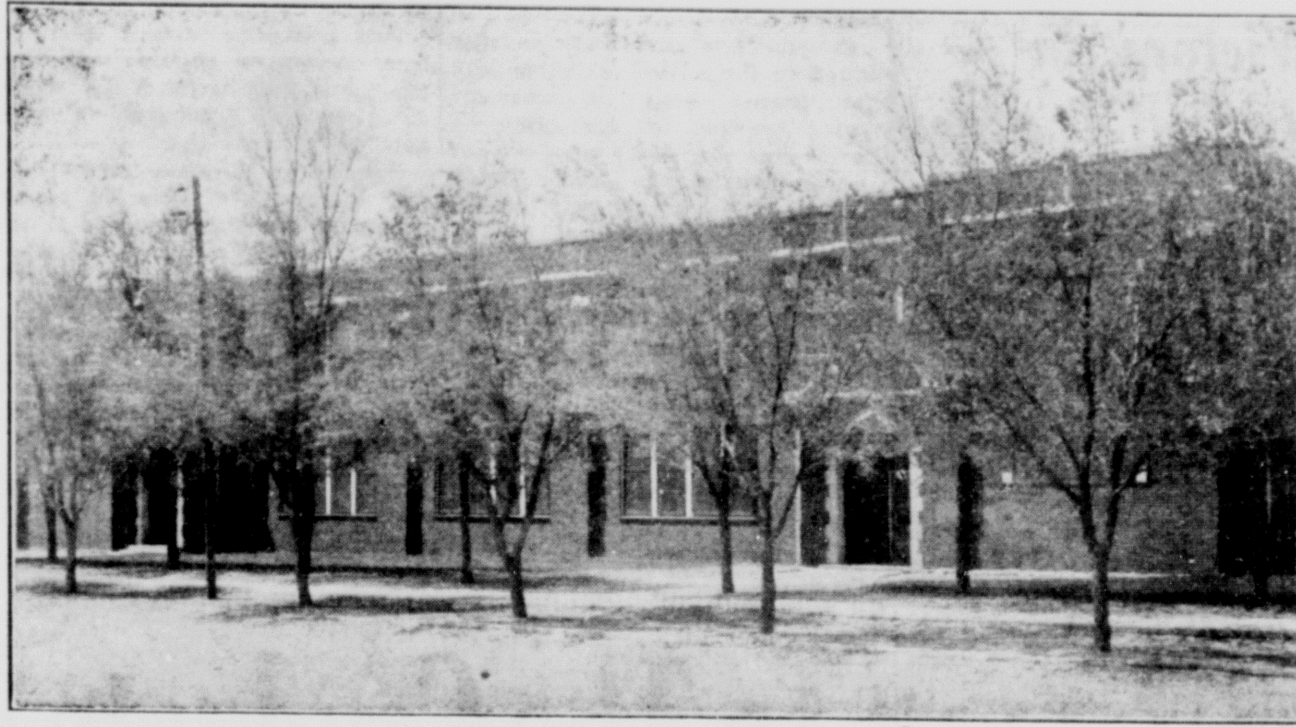

All senior lettermen will be expected to join the club soon after school is out, and it has been said that there will be a grand initiation; that is it will be grand for the old members.

Jack Oldham will attend W. T. S. T. C. this summer, and take a vacation later in the mountains.

'SPRING GLOW' PRESENTED BY GRADE PUPILS

Sixty-Five Students Take Part In The Operetta

"Spring Glow," an operetta starring 65 pupils from the second, third, and fourth grades, was presented Monday night in the high school auditorium, to a packed house.

The Junior Band with its 45 members and their director, H. S. Strain, began the program with a German Folk Dance, "Lightly Row," followed by "Abide With Me." Then a march by Griffin, and "America" by Carey, were played.

Operetta

In the operetta, Jack Frost and his elves are trying to keep spring away, but are constantly interrupted in their play by spring's people; the flower maidens, bees, the breezes, butterflies, raindrops, and sunshine fairies. At last they are captured by the brownies and banished to the Northland by Spring. The operetta was divided into three acts: Act I, Enter; Act II, Same; and Act III Spring scene. In the finale when the entire cast was on the stage in their varied and elaborate costumes, kneeling to the queen, the house was dark and a colored spot light was turned on the May queen and the curtain was drawn.

The Cast

Queen of Spring—Mary Carolyn Black.

Blue Bird—Marjorie Cooper.

Jack Frost—James Sharman.

Jack Frost's Elves: Lindsey Taylor, Roy Nickelson, Manis Reed Foster, Joe Billy Little, Willis Cris-

SEVEN LETTER IN '35 GIRLS BASKETBALL

Mable Schmitz Is Elected
Captain Of Girls
Cager Team

Seven girls lettered in basketball for 1934-35; three seniors, three sophomores, and one junior. They and their positions are as follows:

"Mickie" Schmitz, captain—forward.

Arnetta Kirkpatrick, forward.

Mary Ella Davis, forward.

Jean Slack, forward.

Thelma Bryant, guard.

Evelyn Cluck, guard.

Mary Collins, guard.

This season 15 match games were played, including those played at the District Interscholastic League Tournament, eight of which the Eaglettes lost and seven of which they were winners.

On January 2 the Eaglettes played a practice game with the Happy Cowgirls in the high school gym. The visitors won by a large score.

The first real match game was played on January 4 at Groom, where the Eaglettes forced their way to victory by a score of 23 to 19.

The following night the Eaglettes were victorious a second time. The game was played in the opponents' gym at Tulia. The score was 22 to 19.

On January 11 the Eaglettes played the Vega sextet in the local gym. Again the Eaglettes were victorious by a score of 19 to 14.

Eagles Lose
The next night the Eagle sextet dropped its first game to the Happy Cowgirls. The Cowgirls won by a slight margin of 23 to 18. The next games were played January 18 and 19. Both of these games were lost, one to the Dimmitt Bobbies and the other to the fair sex of Hereford.

On January 25 and 26 the Eaglettes won over Groom and Vega.

Sophomore Girls Victors In Intramural Basketball Tourney

Both games were played in the local gym.

Again on February 1 the Canyon girls lost to the Hereford sextet.

On February 8 and 9 the Eaglettes played the Happy Cowgirls and the Tulia Hornets. The first game was played on the opponents' court, where the Eaglettes went down in defeat; the second in the local gym where they were winners.

On February 15 the Eaglettes dropped a second game to the Dimmitt Bobbies. This was their last game until the district tournament.

March 1 and 2 the girls attended the District Interscholastic League Tournament at Tulia. They drew Dimmitt first and were defeated by the Bobbies. This left the girls to play Dumas for consolation. By winning over the Dumas lassies, the Eaglettes were enabled to play the Happy Cowgirls for the award. The Cowgirls were victorious over the Eaglettes for the third time during the season.

STUDES PLAY MINOR GAMES

Marbles, Croquet, Tops and Ping-Pong Are Most Popular

The minor entertainments and games which have been of interest to students throughout the school year include ping-pong, croquet, marbles, and tops.

Ping-pong has perhaps been the most popular game of the majority of the students, both boys and girls. Two ping-pong sets were bought in the earlier part of the year, and they were placed in the boys' and girls' locker rooms. The tables were made by C. M. Kiker, high school janitor, and the school furnished the sets. This game is still being played by some students, who have developed into expert players.

Croquet has just been recently added to the school activities, and has proved itself an excellent spring pastime for the students. Two regulation courts were set off and worked by the Junior Class, and the school bought two croquet sets that are in constant use at all times.

Marbles was played more in the months of March, and April than in May, because marbles is a fad that doesn't last very long. However, for a time nearly all the students played marbles extensively.

Fast becoming popular with the boys of Canyon High is tops, this game was just started a few weeks ago, but has progressed remarkably well for its short existence. Combining all the recreations, the students of Canyon High School as a whole have had many more pastimes and have interested more people than they have had in former years.

Marie Ellison, Helen Johnson, and Zella Laughery.

The seventh grade line-up was: Annie Sue Rogers, Pauline Cluck, Anna Ruth Schmitz, Bety Joe Black, Jimmy Sol Slack, Estelle Varnarsdale, and Rena Beth Bellah.

Bud Myers refereed the games, and the contest was sponsored by Miss Lois Goodrich.

The sophomore line-up was: Captain Billy Louise Greenfield, Carolyn Mayfield, Marvis Harden, Betty Ruth Solomon, Kate Ellen Donnell, Fay Plaster, Dell Bagley, Mary Catherine Wirt, Pauline Moore, and Pauline Harris.

Those playing for the juniors were: Captain Red Watkins, Mildred Clounch, Gerald Dean Heath, Ruby Guthrie, Myrtle Chitwood, Anna Kathryn Overton, Billie Bee Flesher, Sarah Bonnie, and Lucy Mae Furlow.

The line-up for the seniors was: Captain Edith Steen, Mary May Harrison, Irene Thompson, Frances Gill, Wilma Price, Jewel Chambers, Margaret Croson, Margaret Nicholas, Helen Elizabeth Bowman, and Winnie Dee Hicks.

The freshmen who suited out were: Captain Mary Horn, Glenna B. Eastwood, Polly Little, Obara Burgan, Natalie Flesher, Helen Hurst, Anna May Spencer, Lillian Chambers, Sarah Thompson, Lula

MABLE SCHMITZ

Schmitz and Price Lead Pep Squad During '34

Yea, team fight! Yea, team fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!

Thus the 62 pep squad girls of '34 with their leaders, Mickey Schmitz and Wilma Price, began their career of backing the Eagles. Forty-two purple peps and 20 white peps with their sponsor, Mrs. Lee Foster, composed the squad. The Purple Peps ordered new caps at the beginning of the year. The White Peps ordered white sweaters.

Stunts Given

The following stunts were given during the football season:

Panhandle game—Squad marched from each end of field and formed a large C. H. S. They raised their wings and slowly stooped to a sitting position.

Groom game—Purple and White Peps marched from each end of the field and formed letters "C-a-n-y-o-n" alternately with purple and white girls. The girls in the first three letters knelt down, chanting the letters C-a-n, while they were coming up the others knelt down chanting Y-o-n. This was repeated three times. The last time both divisions stayed down and yelled "Canyon" three times.

Happy game—Squad marched on to the field with pole with purple and white streamers with intention of Purple Peps forming large circle holding onto the purple streamers and White Peps forming smaller circle inside holding to white streamers. Each circle to the music of the band would go in opposite directions. The wind prevented the carrying out of the stunt.

Hereford game—The squad first formed the letters C. H. S. and went down in domino style, they then rose and formed the letters C. H. S. bending forward simultaneously.

Squad Given Feeds

The annual feed for the Canyon football boys was given to climax the Tulia game, with Tulia as guests of Canyon.

Following the Hereford game the Canyon football boys and pep squad were guests of a feed given by the Hereford pep squad.

Mrs. Foster says, "The Pep Squad has accomplished a great deal this year and we expect to have new suits next year."

The Pep Squad made two trips this year, one to Panhandle and one to Hereford. The Panhandle trip was made in the school bus; the Hereford trip in cars.

The Canyon News

A Record-Breaking Year

The year closing in the Canyon Public Schools has been an unusual one from the point of achievement of the Senior Class in its varied experience.

Never before has The Eagle's Tale printed a full page School News week after week in the Canyon News—a page filled with successful events of the week's happenings in that institution.

Never before has the page won first place in two state wide contests—at Baylor College and at the Interscholastic League.

Never before has a large majority of the Staff made the long trip to Austin to participate in the Interscholastic League Meet.

Never before has so many good things been said of the hard and efficient work of the School's newspaper Staff as has been said of The Eagle's Tale during 1934-35.

Never before has a high school paper published a full section filled with such interesting material as this section to-day. It is a worthy undertaking—well done—and appreciated by the patrons of the School.

While congratulating the Staff of The Eagle's Tale in a most hearty spirit, and in appreciation of the splendid work and cooperation of the past year, The Canyon News speaks for itself.

The News enjoys and appreciates beyond words the splendid patronage enjoyed among the progressive business firms of Canyon, who made possible the publication of the real, live, growing newspaper week after week, year after year.

No newspaper plant in the Panhandle is as well equipped and prepared for service to the community as is the plant of The Canyon News.

No newspaper has a more substantial or better reading public than has The Canyon News, developed through fair reporting and honest treatment.

No newspaper offers better advertising advantages, since the paper goes into the homes of the County week after week—as an invited guest to be read by all members of the family.

Advertising experts pronounce the weekly newspaper as the best medium for reaching the homes of all the community, since the weekly newspaper is strictly a family publication, enjoyed by young and old alike.

EAGLE'S TALE WINS STATE AND DISTRICT HONORS

EAGLE'S TALE TAKES FIRST IN I. L. P. C.

Paper Takes First In Class C District At Austin

MAKE THREE TRIPS

Twenty One Members of Club Attended I. L. P. C. Meet

Winning honors in three high school press associations is the record set by the Press Club this year.

The Eagle's Tale was named the best school page in the state by the Texas High School Press Association at a convention in Belton, December 15.

The Eagle's Tale was also named winner of Class C newspapers in the Northwest District by the Inter-Scholastic League Press Conference at Austin, March 20, making Canyon eligible to send delegates to the state meet held at Austin May 3-4. The Eagle's Tale also won third place as the best all around newspaper at the Panhandle High School Press Association Meet in Pampa, April 27.

Make Headline Schedule
The improvement of The Eagle's Tale lies chiefly in the adopting of a headline schedule with the use of more kinds of type. Members of the staff have been allowed to read proof at the news office for the first time, thus cutting many errors. Another aid in its improvement is the reorganization of the staff into news, sports, and feature departments.

The staff made three out-of-town trips besides a trip to the Canyon News Office. Staff members visited McCormick Engraving Co., News-Globe Office, and Russell Stationery Co. of Amarillo.

Twenty-four members of the Press Club attended the convention of the Panhandle High School Press Association at Pampa, April 27. Bill Cone, editor gave a lengthy discussion on staff organization at one of the sessions.

Delegation to Austin
Twenty-one members attended the Interscholastic League Press Conference at Austin May 3-4. Rubye Foster, one of the contest delegates won third place in news story writing. Sessions were held Friday and Saturday and a banquet dance Friday night.

The Press Club has had three social events this year. The first event was a treasure hunt in December. Then in January, the club honored Miss Lois Goodrich, its sponsor, with a banquet.

The editors and sponsor who have so successfully supervised the publication of The Eagle's Tale during 1934-35 are respectively, Bill Cone and Hampton Lisle, and Miss Goodrich.

Mary Ella Davis will edit The Eagle's Tale next year and Jack Taylor will be managing editor. The staff will be reorganized next

YEAR'S WORK IN MUSIC SUCCESS

Band, Orchestra, Glee Club Cooperate Barker Says

"Every member of the band, orchestra, and glee club has co-operated this year and we have had a successful year." These were the words of Mrs. J. D. Barker, director of the orchestra and glee club. Mr. H. S. Strain is director of the two bands.

The Glee Club has met every Wednesday and Thursday morning from 8:30 to 9 o'clock this year. It has sung once this year in assembly. The members of the club are as follows:

Sopranos: Margaret Nicholas, Ruth McCrery, Dora Tucek, Florence Root, Mavis Hardin, Gerald Dean Heath, and Wilma Cofer; Altos: Gladys McBride, Marjorie Wilkinson, Annie Mae Spencer, Mary Ellen Hurst, Ruby Guthrie, Gertrude Brandt, Zella Laughery, and Loretta Cole.

Senior Band
The senior band, practicing on Tuesday and Friday nights, has played at nearly all of the home football and basketball games and twice at the Saturday afternoon drawing on the Canyon square. Its members include:

Cornet: Mable Schmitz, George Schmitz, Florence Root, Robert Orton, and Jack Pitts; Clarinet: Lorenzo Wirt, J. C. Bellah, Dawson Little, and Joe Billy Little; Saxophone: Jack Oldham, Loretta Cole, and Elvert Laughery; Baritone: Mary Strain, Lorene Bessire; Trombone: Estill Furlow; Bass Drum: Edd Brooks; Snare Drum:

The high school orchestra with three violins, three cornets, two clarinets, two saxophones, and the piano has played at the Chamber of Commerce banquet in February besides their regular practices. New music was bought by the school for the orchestra this year.

Junior Band
The junior band was just organized this year, but it now has forty-three members including:

Clarinet: Dean Nicholas, W. J. Wooten, Rena Beth Bellah, J. C. Bellah, Martha Carlee Wirt, Marjorie Wilkinson, Harry Brown, Roy Rogers, Bill Pike, Fred Hart, Andy Walsh; Saxophone: Zella Laughery, Melvin Callahan; Cornet: Dawson Little, D. A. Prichard, Bob Laughery, Charles Gerald, Billy Joe Hunter, Dorothy Strain, Hudson Prichard, Anna Ruth Schmitz, Carl Small, Ed Little, Wayne Marsh, Jim Spencer; Altos: Bradford Black, Vera Fay Marsh, Glen Hicks, Pauline Spencer, Rayburn McKee; Trombone: Carl Cone, Martha Campbell, Vaughn Vandergriff, Estill Furlow, Wilma Marsh, Billy Davis, E. F. Hicks; Baritone: Eugene Newberry, Carl Criswell; Tuba: D. E. Mariner; Bass Horn: Roy Cofer; Snare Drum: Hal Harrison; Bass Drum: Betty Jo Foster; Small Tuba: Kenneth Cofer.

The Canyon High School has had seven fire drills this year, and the students have responded remarkably to them.

Fire drills were carried on in a very orderly manner; more so than in former years because of the interest displayed by the students in the drills.

The entire program and electing of officers has been in charge of the members of the student council, and the school officials.

Officers that were selected from the various classes were: Willard Childers, fire chief, and Mary Ella Davis, assistant fire chief. Floor captains were Billy Bewley, Hampton Lisle, Sarah Bonnie Bourn, Polly Little, Porrest Hill and Jack Middleton. Each of these captains were helped by an assistant and then each class room had a monitor.

HOME EC. GIRLS SERVE LUNCHEONS, SUPPER

The first year home economics girls have been studying luncheons and dinners, and in doing so they have planned and given a dinner, and a buffet supper.

The supper was planned for a family of four. Members of the class acted the parts of members of the family consisting of a filling station man, his wife, a daughter in high school, and a son also in high school, who enters into many of the activities. It was given Friday.

The buffet supper was planned and given to fifteen girls of the class Tuesday.

MUSIC I CLASS HAS PICNIC AT HAIL'S PARK

Members of Music I Class of Canyon High School spent last Friday afternoon at Hale's Park.

Most of the group started walking and their sponsor, Mrs. J. D. Barker, picked them up in her car later.

FRESHMAN PICNIC AT METHODIST ENCAMP.

The Freshman Class enjoyed a picnic at the Methodist Encampment last Saturday.

The group started at 9:30 in cars belonging to Aubrey Fox, D. S. Hill, and Carl Laughery. The day was spent in climbing, wading, and lying under the falls.

They returned at 4 o'clock very tired and blistered, but singing, "At the End of a Perfect Day."

COUSINS' CLASS HAS GYM PARTY

Mrs. Isabelle Cousins' class was entertained with a party in the grade school gymnasium last Friday afternoon by Mrs. Cousins, teacher of 4B, Mrs. R. W. Johnston, and Mrs. H. L. Heizer, parents. Refreshments of sandwiches, fruit cookies, and ice cream were served.

JUNIOR BAND MAKES PICTURES

Last Monday afternoon the band of the Canyon Grade School had its picture taken by Patsy Britain. Immediately following the taking of the pictures, H. S. Strain served them ice cream.

W. T. AND C. H. S. GIRLS GIVEN RECEPTION

The girls of the senior classes of Canyon High School and W. T. S. T. C. Training School were entertained with a formal reception Wednesday night at 7:30 at Cousins Hall.

The reception was given by the A. A. U. W. and their officers were in the receiving line.

A musical program was given.

Senior Gridsters Defeat '35 Eagles by Score of 22 to 0

The seniors defeated the '35 team in a scrimmage April 24, by the score of 20 to 0. The only time that the '35 gridsters threatened to score was in the second quarter when a punt was blocked by a '35 lineman and recovered on the 20 yard line. The Eagle Gridsters of '35 took the ball to the two yard line, but lost the ball on downs, which cost them their only chance to tally.

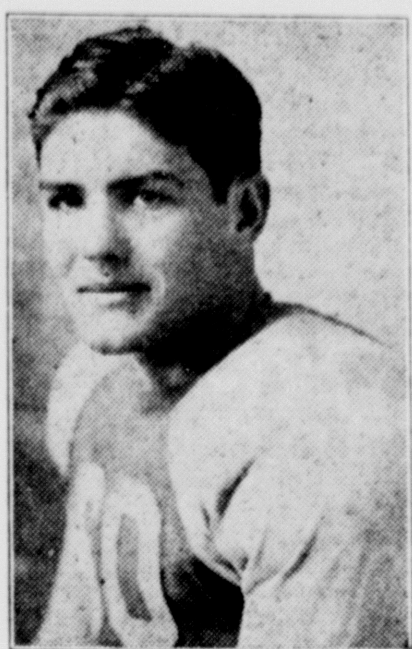

The outstanding gains made by the seniors were through the center of the line. Two pointers were made by long runs. Edd Brooks returned a punt from the 50 yard line for a touchdown, and Hampton Lisle, quarter-back of the seniors, spun through the center of the line for another long run which resulted in a touchdown.

The Eagles of '35 on several occasions pushed down the field for a few consecutive first downs, although the '35 gridsters were always stopped before reaching the opponents' goal line.

Captain Curtis Ellison headed the seniors with another brain man, Hampton Lisle, quarter-back. Other seniors to play their last game of football were: Wade Johnson, Chris Wooten, three year lettermen, Edd Brooks, Roland Black, two year lettermen, and Jack Pitts, O.M. Solomon, one year letterman. The seniors who were not on the squad in 1934 who played were: James Hill, Kenneth Cayton, Bud Myers, and Bill Cone.

CURTIS ELLISON

WESLEY COX

Seven weeks of spring training was well spent in all fashion, styles, and shapes of blocking, tackling, and scrimmages. West Texas dust storms caused a pause in the practice several days.

No major injuries were received in the seven weeks of training. More boys reported for training this spring than have ever reported in preceding years.

The next year's Eagles will play in new Southwestern purple uniforms. Coach Cleveland Jones has ordered 18 Southwestern worsted wool playing suits, also new blocking pads, shoulder pads and some new helmets.

The probable line-up for the Eagle squad is Captain Wesley Cox, Leslie Lisle, C. L. Drummond, Lavert Avent, Tom Harris, Benson Clouch, Billy Bewley, Ralph Rusk, Edgar Hutton, Hershel Burrus, and O. D. Breitting. Other prospects are: John B. Pope III, Douglas Louder, Douglas Brasuel, Melvin Callham, Joe Gill, and D. A. Butler.

AN APPEAL TO MOTHER NATURE

By Lannie Line
Oh! Mother Nature, you must heed
The story I shall tell;
Then you will know this dreadful deed,
I trust, and judge it well.

The wind is like a man of crime
With dust its evil mate;
It roams along from time to time
And strikes its blow of fate.

But dust is not so much to blame
As drouth, and sultry wind
That sweep it across the plains
And o'er the hills and glens.

For on across the country side
The churlish wind doth blow
And strips the fields both far and wide
Of fresh green sprouts that grow.

The dust rolls o'er the plains 'so thick
That day is dark as night
It makes my weary soul grow sick
To look on such a sight.
While all around the country side,
The buried fences stand;
On horseback one could o'er them ride,
As on the level land.

Now, Mother Nature, I have told
To you my tale of woe;
So send us rain that came of old,
And help our crops to grow.

EAGLE CAGERS TIE OPPOSERS

Take Seven Games Of Eight; Letter Six Eagle Squad

The 1935 Eagle Basketball team went through a tough schedule of 15 games, winning seven and losing eight. The Eagles tied their opponents with 290 points as their season's total score.

They played such teams as Hereford, Happy, and the Pampa Harvesters; the Harvesters played in the final game at the Regional Interscholastic League Tournament.

On the first team, Curtis Ellison, Lawrence Fulton, and O. M. Solomon will be absent in the season of '36 because of graduation. Jack Taylor and Wesley Cox, forward and guard respectively, plan to be back next year as members of this season's first team; Thomas Harris, a letterman, also plans to be back.

Six men were lettered this year: Jack Taylor, Curtis Ellison, Wesley Cox, Lawrence Fulton, and Thomas Harris were awarded their sweaters by the school because they did not letter in any other sport. The school gives only one letter sweater to a person a year.

Five Eagles Take Honors In Track Meet Held Here

The '35 Eagles track team was composed of above the average material, though most of the men had little knowledge of the various contests in which they participated. Five men were lettered by receiving places in the District Interscholastic League meet.

Those lettering were: Curtis Ellison in 880 yard run and mile relay, Cecil O'Donald, Jack Middleton, Hampton Lisle, also in mile relay, and Sewel Cox in the shot put. Other contestants that participated in the track and field events were: Wade Johnson, Prentice McKee, O. M. Solomon, and Willard Childers.

Curtis Ellison won first place in the district meet; the relay team won second place, and Sewel Cox got a fourth place in the shot put. This enabled them to participate in the regional meet the following week.

Mae Spencer, Lula Marie Ellison, Helen Johnson, Clarence Zachery, Barnett Ball, Jimmie Pite, Billy Black, Billy Bewley, D. A. Butler, Tommy Butler, Johnnie McBroom, Estelle Breitting, J. T. Eagle Football Squad Makes 128 Points To 39 In '34 Year

Although the Eagle football team of 1934 failed to net district honors, they made an excellent showing.

Of the eight games the Eagles played, they lost three and won five. The team scored 62 first downs, compared with their opponents' 40, and succeeded in holding their rivals to a total score of 39, while they made the grand sum of 128.

The grid squad of 1934 elected Wesley Cox captain for the coming season. Wesley has been a member of the squad three years and is a two-year letterman.

Curtis Ellison, the captain of the 1934 season, was a three-year letterman who played right end last year.

The following is the schedule and results of the entire 1934 football season:

Dumas 0	Canyon 7
Panhandle 6	Canyon 0
Groom 0	Canyon 19
Farwell 2	Canyon 38
Happy 0	Canyon 19
Vega 0	Canyon 38
Tulia 7	Canyon 7

New Rule Limits League Eligibility To 17 or Under

The state executive committee of the Interscholastic League recently adopted a rule limiting participation in all its contests to students 17 years or under. The present limit is 19 years.

This rule, which will become effective on September 1, 1936, will probably effect all the high school Interscholastic League contests throughout the state. Canyon High School will lose several of the athletes that Coach Cleveland Jones had planned to have on the first team line-up for the '36 and '37 school year.

Any student 18 years old on September 1 would be eligible, but those who are 18 before that time will be cut out of the contests.

HOME EC. GIRLS ATTEND RALLY AT PLAINVIEW

Rally To Meet Here Next Year: C. H. S.
Co-Hostess

Both the Freshman and Senior Home Economics Clubs attended the District Rally at Plainview in March and will be co-hostesses with the Home Economics Club of the Training School at the District Rally to be held here next spring.

Marielle Oldham, president of the senior club, won first place in the district Interscholastic League contest in judgment and selection of kitchen equipment.

In the senior club, for the first semester, Rubye Foster was president; Marielle Oldham was vice-president; and Faye Plaster was secretary and treasurer. For the second semester, Rubye Foster resigned, and Marielle Oldham was elected president. Helen Bowman was elected vice-president, and Faye Plaster, secretary and treasurer.

In the freshman club, Polly Little is president; Sarah Thompson, vice-president; and Obara Borgan, secretary.

The senior club won the second prize at the annual Stunt Night with a skit, "Love in the Park."

A food basket was sponsored at Thanksgiving. Plans are being made for money making schemes for the financing of a trip to the State Home-Making Rally for the winners of the contest to be held in this school next year.

Seniors Originate

senior boys were defeated by the sophomores. From the senior team, Wade Johnson was chosen as one of the C. H. S. all-intramural team players.

Senior Campaigns

A loyalty campaign was sponsored for the selling of season tickets. All the classes entered in the campaign, and the seniors were victorious.

Every year the seniors have had charge of selling "Beat Hereford" tags. This year they sold them again for the usual price of five cents.

The seniors sponsored two shows during the year. They were "Little Miss Marker" and "Sequoia."

The seniors defeated the other classes when it came to putting over their king, Curtis Ellison, and queen, Mary Jean Mickle. Mary Jean was crowned queen of the high school after the stunts were given on April 12.

Senior Interests

From eight performers, three seniors and one junior were chosen to participate in the one-act play contest. The seniors were Mary May Harrison, Lorene Bessire, and Jack Oldham.

Among the original group of reporters for The Eagle's Tale, 20 are seniors, six of which hold important positions. Bill Cone and Hampton Lisle are co-editors; Rubye Foster is assistant editor; Irene Thompson is news editor; Lorene Bessire is feature editor, and Jack Oldham is exchange editor.

Senior Socials

Miss Grace Clark, class sponsor, entertained 41 seniors with a "Nut Party" at her home on October 22. Everything had some connection with nuts. Half-nuts were matched for partners.

April 1 turned out to be a day for picnics. The seniors made a day of it at the Baptist Encampment. Coach Cleveland Jones took baseball equipment, and again baseball took the top. Although those "African hunter's hats" were worn by many seniors, they suffered from sunburned noses, necks, and arms.

Seventh Grade Boys Hate Girls Or Are They Just Stubborn?

What happened to the 7-A boys Tuesday afternoon? No one seems to know the answer except the 7-A girls. They're really not stubborn, but they just don't like the same things the girls do.

When Mrs. John Davis, sponsor of the seventh grade, asked if they wanted a picnic, all agreed that it was a good idea, but when the boys found that the girls were

Sophomore Cagers Capture Intramural Basketball Title

The strong sophomore team coached by Thomas Harris won the boys Intramural Basketball Tournament after they nosed the seniors out by a close score of 14 to 16.

The tournament was played on the double elimination basis, and progressed as follows: The soph team composed of Benson Clouch, Ralph Rusk, Ray Ford Rusk, C. L. Drummond and Willard Childers met Jack Taylor's junior squad composed of Jack N. Jennings, Edgar Hutton, O. D. Breitling, Wandell Johnson and Sewel Cox, and downed them by a score of 36 to 16.

Seventh Grade Wins

Immediately following this game the small seventh grade team composed of D. A. Butler, Jimmie Fite, Joe Gill, Tommie Butler, and Eston Breitling met Wesley Cox's fish basketball squad made up of Billie Sternberg, Douglas Brasuel, Mabry Vandergriff, Billy Bewley, and Billy Black, and after a thrilling game defeated them by a close margin of 23 to 18.

Beat Seniors

The sophomore team met the senior quintet made up of Bud Myers, Kenneth Cayton, Roland Black, Chris Wooten, and Wade Johnson and defeated them by a score of 11 to 12.

The freshman team was eliminated in the fourth game of the tournament when the juniors downed it by a one-sided score of 24 to 8.

After having eliminated the freshmen the juniors met the same fate at the hands of the seniors.

The sophomores played the seventh grade cagers and defeated them by a score of 24 to 16.

The seventh grade team was again defeated when it met the seniors in a thrilling game.

Play Seniors in Finals

The final game of the tournament played by the soph and senior basketballers was a game of continual thrills. The soph squad managed to place a field goal in the last minutes of play and won the game with the score standing 16 to 14.

The all intramural team as selected by Coach C. C. Jones is as follows:

C. L. Drummond, soph., forward.
Bud Myers, senior, forward.
Ray Ford Rusk, soph., center.
Wade Johnson, senior, guard.
Willard Childers, soph., guard.

excited about it, they flatly refused to go.

Don't tell the fish this, but Hal Gamble said it sounded to him like the freshmen. Now this wasn't meant for a slam on either class, just a little opinion.

Now the 7-A girls turned stubborn and said they'd go without the boys, so last Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. John Davis, and Mrs. W. T. Davis, home room mother, journeyed to Bourn's creek with the girls where games were played and refreshments of sandwiches, fruit, cookies and ice cream were served.

responsible for the success of these programs. Miss Angel has been teaching expression here only one year, but has proven herself a very efficient and capable person in this work. Mrs. Foster has taught music here for five years, and has produced a great number of excellent high school pianists.

The main participants of this year were:

High School: Gladys McBride, Mary May Harrison, Dell Bagley, Viola Dooley, Mary Ella Davis, Margaret Nicholas, and Freida Lowrie.

Grade School: Earl Lock Neff, Martha Frances Campbell, Doris Marie Ball, Renna Beth Bellah, Ruth Price, Clarence Eugene Thompson and Anita Davis.

A very interesting costume recital was given early this spring. Both high school and grade school pupils took part in this recital.

There was also a special recital given by Mary May Harrison and Gladys McBride. Both of these girls are seniors this year and have taken piano lessons about five years.

Be Somebody---Amount to Something

YOU are a new combination of possibilities in the world. Your job is to discover your worthwhile possibilities and make them count for something for yourself and for those about you. What possibilities are worth while? how can you go about it to discover and develop them?

You don't need to hold a big job in the world to be a HUMAN SUCCESS. Birth or accident may put into high positions folks who are rather "small potatoes" as human beings, but the world sizes up their HUMAN QUALITIES about right. More and more folks are being judged not by what they own but by WHAT THEY ARE and WHAT THEY DO.

THE FIRST STEP in a SUCCESSFUL CAREER

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE GRADUATES

In the past half century engineering science—the product of our schools—has brought to the world unbelievable progress. Science has given us developments and inventions which would have been considered Utopian luxuries only a few years ago. Through the years luxuries have become necessities.

A most important adaptation on natural resources came with the availability of gas for industrial, commercial and domestic uses.

Until recent years gas was used principally for cooking and heating purposes. Science has again shown progress in adapting gas for use in water heating and other home uses that greatly reduce the burden on housewives.

A few yeras ago gas was adapted for use in freezing, when it was discovered—thanks to science—that a tiny gas flame would produce freezing temperatures. Immediately a Gas Refrigerator was put on the market. Improvements have been constantly made until this year's model of the gas refrigerator operates for less than 3 cents per day, the lowest cost of any refrigerator on the market—it's economical—it's silent, for it has no moving parts.

Our company is greatly interested in the welfare of the schools of the territory which it is our pleasure to serve, and we wish well all those who are connected with these institutions.
